TRANSFER IN FOR F-1/J-1 STUDENTS
POLICY

BEFORE ARRIVAL:

Tell the international student adviser at your current school that you are transferring to Drexel University. Your international student adviser must complete Drexel's Transfer-in Form (see back of the form) and return it via Fax or email to the International Students and Scholars Services office (ISSS) at Drexel University.

Note: ISSS cannot issue you a new I-20/DS-2019 until after you have been confirmed for admission to Drexel and submitted ALL of the following documents:

- ☐ Transfer-In Release Form submitted by your current International Student adviser
- ☐ Copy of your most current I-20 or DS-2019 form
- ☐ Original or copy of the I-20 application
- ☐ Copy of Financial Documents no less than 6months old (bank statement/affidavit of support letter /scholarship letter)
- ☐ Mailing address that your I-20 would like to be mailed

Note: As a transfer student you cannot have a break between the old school and the new one but instead you must begin classes the very next available term/quarter/semester. Hence, if you have graduated from a college or university in the U.S., your SEVIS record must be released to Drexel before the end of your 60 or 30 day grace period (post-graduation). If not, you will be out of status as your F-1/J-1 immigration status will be completed and inactive.

AFTER ARRIVAL:

When you arrive at Drexel, you must bring the following documents to ISSS within the first 14 days of the beginning of the quarter (add/drop period):

- Valid passport
- Valid F1/J1 Visa
- I-94 card (the white departure card in your passport)
- New Drexel I-20 or DS-2019

Failure to report to ISSS by the stated deadline and register for the next available quarter violates your F-1/J-1 immigration status and terminates your legal status in the United States.

Note: If you are a former student of Drexel University, you will need to check with your academic adviser and/or your college to ensure your return/readmission. Contact ISSS for required documentation which includes your readmission/returning letter from your academic adviser.

Welcome to Drexel University!
