ROBERTA D. LIEBENBERG

SENIOR PARTNER, FINE, KAPLAN AND BLACK

FOUNDER, DIRECTWOMEN

FORMER CHAIR, AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION'S COMMISSION ON WOMEN IN THE PROFESSION

Roberta D. Liebenberg is a senior partner at Fine Kaplan and Black in Philadelphia, where she concentrates her practice in complex commercial litigation, including anti-trust and class actions, and white collar criminal defense. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the Catholic University Columbus School of Law, magna cum laude. Thereafter, she served as a law clerk for the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. She is consistently listed as one of America's top lawyers.

An Advocate for Women

Previously, Liebenberg served as Chair of the ABA Commission on Women in the Profession, as well as Chair of both the Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Bar Associations' respective Commissions on Women in the Profession. She also was appointed by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to its Committee on Racial and Gender Bias in the Justice System, where she was Co-Chair of the Gender Bias Committee.

Ongoing Involvement

Liebenberg was appointed by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to the Interbranch Commission for Gender, Racial and Ethnic Fairness, and serves as Chair of its Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Victims Committee. She currently serves as the Vice Chair of DirectWomen, which seeks to identify and train women lawyers to serve on Fortune 1000 corporate boards. She has received a number of awards in recognition of her efforts on behalf of women, including the Sandra Day O'Connor Award by the Philadelphia Bar Association, the Lynette Norton Award by the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Distinguished Daughters of Pennsylvania Award by Pennsylvania Governor Edward G. Rendell. She was named by the National Law Journal as one of the "50 Most Influential Women Lawyers in America."
