

The Drexel University Department of Architecture, Design & Urbanism presents the Twilight Lecture Series. Periodically, we will bring to campus a notable voice from the region to talk about design initiatives and policies. The Twilight Lecture Series is free and open to the public.

TWILIGHT LECTURE SERIES

20/21 Season

May 4
2021
5:30 pm

COUNTER NARRATIVES: WORKING IN THE BETWEEN

A Multiplicity of Voices Investigating
Intersectionality and Design.

May 4, 2021
5:30PM

Register:

[https://drexel.zoom.us/
webinar/register/WN_
AbV1tAQYR5uGLHxD0HQnVA](https://drexel.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_AbV1tAQYR5uGLHxD0HQnVA)

This roundtable is poised to explore complementary design narratives centered on the experience of Black individuals. We invite voices from adjacent disciplines to discuss the state of design and how we can reimagine a more open, equitable and inclusive future.

Edward Bartholomew, Lighting Designer,
Principle, Bartholomew Lighting

Lisa Otterbeck, Construction Manager,
Co-Owner SF Construction

Shakira Hunt, Photographer, Founder, Shakira
Hunt Creative Studio

Thabo Lenneiye, Startup Entrepreneur,
Co-Founder, MisenBox

Moderated by:

Sequoyah Hunter-Cuyjet, Interior Designer,
Determined by Design

Co-sponsored by Drexel University's Master of Science
Program in Design Research (DSRE)