

Ramadan

MUBARAK

رَمَضَانُ مُبَارَكٌ

This year, Ramadan begins on the evening of Sunday, March 10 and will continue through the evening of Tuesday, April 9. At the end of the month of Ramadan, Eid al-Fitr (Festival of Breaking the Fast) will take place on Wednesday, April 10, during which many Muslims celebrate with loved ones.

The above start, end, and Eid dates are subject to change by one day depending on the Islamic calendar (based on the lunar cycle).

Ramadan is observed by 1.8 Billion Muslims around the world. It entails fasting from food and drink (including water!) from dawn until sunset, praying for long hours into the night, and increasing in good deeds and acts of charity. Ramadan is the most spiritually significant time of the year for many Muslims.

The University seeks to support all community members observing Ramadan this season. Information regarding accommodations (academic, employee, etc.) is available at:
