

COMCAST-SPECTACOR INTERNSHIP PROGRAM
PHILADELPHIA SIXERS PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT
GAME-NIGHT INTERNSHIPS

- Job Title: Sixers Game-Night PR Intern
- Reports To: Full-Time Sixers PR Staff
- Number of Positions: Up to 5 students
- Hours Required: Approximately six hours per game night worked, arriving three hours before game-time and ending approximately one hour after game ends. Schedules can be adjusted to meet needs of student's internship program. Student should expect a maximum of approximately 120 hours. In spring semester, preference given to applicants with availability through the end of the NBA Finals, as late as the end of June
- Qualifications: College juniors, seniors, or graduate students working for earned credits. Strong computer skills preferred; ability to use Microsoft Word required. Strong writing and verbal communication skills are required.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to the following:

- Supervision of Sixers Media Workroom, including pregame meals and postgame support
- Distribution of game credentials at Wachovia Center press entrance
- Assistance with press operations during games including the recording and transcribing of postgame press conferences
- Perform all other duties and responsibilities as assigned