

Drexel University goes to great lengths to keep your personal information private and safe. All credit card transactions occur over secure connections in accordance with established industry guidelines, to protect you from any loss, misuse or alteration of information collected.

We collect the following personal information when you make an on-line purchase: name, address, telephone number, billing information, shipping information and e-mail address. Credit card numbers are collected, transmitted and processed by our third party processor which is Payment Card Industry (PCI) compliant using the industry standard 128 bit encryption. Drexel University does not store your credit card numbers.

The site from which you are making your purchase may request additional information from you other than the personal information listed above. Please understand that such information is not required to process your purchase and therefore if provided, is on a completely voluntary basis.

Your privacy is very important to Drexel University and below are the practices that apply to the personal information or other we collect about you, when and how we collect that information and what may happen to that information.

- Drexel will not disclose your information to third parties other than those required to complete your transaction.
- Drexel will not sell your information to anyone.
- Drexel will take reasonable steps to protect the security of your information we collect from you. We use the same safeguards used to protect Drexel's sensitive data.

If you have a question or concern regarding the above information, please contact Drexel University via e-mail at webpay@drexel.edu.