

Request for Approval of Non-School of Law Courses

Students may apply up to 6 quarter credits or 4 semester credits from other Drexel colleges to their JD degree at the School of Law, subject to eligibility and approval of the courses. The rules governing this process can be found in the JD Student Handbook, Section I.C.

Students who plan to take any academic courses outside the School of Law must apprise the administration of this intention in writing, using this form, before registering for the courses. This form is intended for students taking a small amount of courses in other Drexel colleges, and not for students pursuing approved Drexel University joint degrees.
