Bennett S. LeBow '60, Hon. '98, Gifts $45 Million Toward LeBow College of Business Academic Center

President John Fry announced on Tuesday, November 16, 2010, a record $45 million gift from financier and corporate executive Bennett S. LeBow toward construction of a new academic center for the College of Business, which was named in LeBow's honor in 1999.

The gift is the largest donation to Drexel from a single donor and the largest by an alumni benefactor. LeBow, who received a Drexel degree in electrical engineering in 1960, has now committed a total of $60 million to Drexel. Including the new gift, he has donated $55 million to the College of Business. He has also supported Drexel's College of Engineering with a $5 million gift for the state-of-the-art LeBow Engineering Center.

Alumni can visit the Building LeBow Web site to learn more about the new LeBow College of Business building, share memories of Matheson Hall, and read what others have said. More

The Alumni Association Would Like to Say "Thanks!"

During this season of Thanksgiving, the Drexel University Alumni Association would like to express its gratitude toward all of our alumni volunteers for their service to the University. The overarching mission of the Alumni Association is to keep alumni in touch, informed, involved and invested in Drexel, and none of that would be possible without the hard work of each of our alumni volunteers. You invest your time and energy in the University, and that dedication is a testament to your belief in Drexel. Your leadership and service is valued and deeply appreciated. Thank you and keep up the great work!

The goal of the Alumni Association is to keep our graduates in touch with the university, the students, and each other. We want to start 2011 with the most comprehensive collection of alumni information as possible, but in order to do so, we need your help. It's simple; all you have to do is log into our Online Alumni Directory (formerly known as DragoNet) and update your profile.

Tell us about the activities and organizations you were involved in as a student, update your home or business address, or post a class note for your classmates to enjoy. Get Counted and then see yourself reflected in our updated alumni population maps!

Log into the Online Alumni Directory and update your profile before Friday, December 31, 2010, and you could be one of two lucky grand prize winners to receive an Amazon Kindle, or one of five winners to get a Drexel Fan Pack including a hat, T-shirt and other Drexel memorabilia! Winners will be randomly selected and will be announced after the New Year. More

Alumni Spotlight: Michelle Wall '10

Meet Drexel graduate Michelle Wall who sings alto in the Festival Chorus which performs with Peter Nero and the Holiday Pops Orchestra. Michelle explains how she got involved in the Chorus, what goes into preparing for the show, and what guests can expect at this year's December 15 Holiday Pops performance.

How did you get involved with Holiday Pops?

I've been a member of the Festival Chorus for five years now. Jeff Kern, the director of the School of Music at the University of the Arts, where I work, is the director of the Festival Chorus. Jeff knew that I sang in college and that I majored in music education and he suggested that I audition for the chorus — so I did.

Save the Date for Homecoming 2011!

All alumni are invited back to campus for Homecoming 2011 on Saturday, January 22 and Sunday, January 23, 2011. This year’s festivities will include the men’s basketball game vs. Northeastern, a pre-game “tailgate”, post-game celebration, and more. Special ticket packages for alumni will be on sale soon. Stay tuned for more information. If you have any suggestions or questions about Homecoming 2011, please contact Louisa Kopp '08 at lcs42@drexel.edu.

Volunteer and Support Families in-need This Holiday Season with the 37th Annual Alumni Holiday Turkey Project

For the past 37 years, the Drexel University community has lent its support to the Annual Alumni Holiday Turkey Project, providing holiday turkeys to families in-need within the University's neighborhood. The need for support continues to grow each year and we ask you to please consider supporting the project. Each donation of $25 will provide 2-3 families with turkey dinners for the holiday season. Drexel alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends can also support the project by volunteering to assist with our turkey distribution on Tuesday, December 21, 2010. More

Calling All Alumni!
Alumni from Student Organizations
When you attended Drexel, were you involved in a student organization leadership role? Were you a member of USGA or the president of your club? If so, let us know! Drexel’s former student leaders will be highlighted during Homecoming Weekend 2011 with a special reunion event on January 22. Please take a minute to e-mail Louisa Kopp ’08 at lcs42@drexel.edu with your contact information and your student organization leadership role so that we can update you on the reunion event.

Legacy Families
Are you one of many generations of Drexel alumni? Are your children currently enrolled or have they already graduated from the University? The Alumni Association would like to recognize Legacy Families of alumni who have continued the Drexel tradition from their parents and grandparents or have passed it on to their children. Take just a minute to update your contact information with us for the latest news about upcoming Legacy Family events and programs. And save the date for a special reception for Legacy families before the January 8, 2011, Drexel Men’s Basketball game in the Daskalakis Athletic Center. More information is coming soon! More
