

Elwyn and the A.J. Drexel Autism Institute Present:

Autism (and Developmental Delays) for Asian Families
A Film Debut

Date & Time: January 22, 2014- 5:30-6:30 PM

Location: United Way Building 1709 Benjamin Franklin Parkway,
Philadelphia

Please join Elwyn and the A.J. Drexel Autism Institute for the 7 minute film debut of Autism (and Developmental Delays) for Asian Families . The film will be shown in English, 中文 (Chinese) 한글 (Korean), नेपाली (Nepali), Indonesia, ខ្មែរ (Khmer) 日本語 (Japanese), and Việt (Vietnamese). A resource fair will follow the film screening. Honored guest, Councilman David Oh will present awards.

- ◆ Date & Time – January 22, 2014- 5:30-6:30 PM
- ◆ Film screening will begin at 5:30 PM
- ◆ Location – United Way Building 1709 Benjamin Franklin Parkway, Philadelphia 19103
- ◆ $5 validated parking at the Sheraton Philadelphia Downtown Hotel 201 N 17th Street
- ◆ For more information about this film and upcoming films check out: www.facebook.com/realmoviesforrealfamilies
- ◆ Please contact Karen Krivit at Krivitk@elwyn.org for any additional questions.

Weather Alert: Elwyn follows the school closing schedule for the Philadelphia Public schools. If the Philadelphia School District is closed due to weather that this film debut will be rescheduled to January 23, 2014.

