Alcohol and Drug Policy for Drexel Conference Center Guests

The following policies were developed in accordance with the health and safety standards critical to maintaining a safe residential community while protecting guests’ rights and acknowledging guests’ responsibilities. Compliance with these policies contributes to the creation and maintenance of a productive living and learning residential experience. Drexel Conference Center guests are responsible for knowing and abiding by the following policies. Failure to abide by any of the following policies will subject the Drexel Conference Center guest to removal from Conference housing and dismissal from any Drexel University sponsored program in which the guest may be enrolled. The guest or sponsoring department will forfeit the full amount of any housing or linen charges if a guest is removed from the residence hall for violating the Alcohol and Drug Policy.

The Drexel Conference Center’s policy regarding alcohol is consistent with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The consumption, distribution or service of alcoholic beverages must comply with the Pennsylvania Crimes Code which defines rules for the lawful consumption and service of alcohol and prescribes sanctions for violations.

Only those guests residing in the Drexel Conference Center housing who are of legal age (21 or older) may possess and/or consume alcohol. Guests who are of legal age may possess and consume alcohol however; they may do so only in their assigned bedroom/suite, behind closed doors.

Regardless of ownership or origin, any of the following items found in conference housing will be confiscated and disposed of: unauthorized alcoholic beverages such as alcoholic beverages found in the possession of minors, kegs, beer balls, funnels, taps or other mechanisms used to dispense alcohol. Public Safety and Drexel University staff is authorized to confiscate and dispose of such items.

The possession, use, distribution or sale of narcotics or drugs, other than those medically prescribed, properly used and stored in the original container, by guests on University property is prohibited. Any and all types of drug paraphernalia including, but not limited to bongs, pipes, and any items modified or adapted so that they can be used to consume drugs are not permitted on University property and Public Safety and Drexel University staff is authorized to confiscate and dispose of such items.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Drug and Alcohol Policy for Drexel Conference Center Guests. I also understand that if I am found in violation of this policy, I may be removed from Conference Housing and that I may no longer be eligible to participate in the University-sponsored program in which I am enrolled.
