Italian 101

Description:

Italian 101 meets four hours per week with a weekly one-hour lab requirement. Italian 101 is the first trimester of Drexel's first year Italian sequence. The goal of the sequence is to provide students with a solid foundation in the fundamental of the Italian language. As is the case of all language courses at Drexel, this course will focus on developing the four skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) in a communicative format. Students will be expected to come to class prepared and be ready to participate in small-group activities and other tasks that will encourage communication.

Materials:

- Prego! Eighth Edition, Lazzarino, Peccianti, Aski, Dini, Thomson Heinle, 2012.
- Workbook
- Lab manual.
- CDs

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1) Drop policy:

Drexel University allows students to drop a course through the end of the sixth week of the term.

This means that you will not be allowed to drop a course, even if you are failing, after the sixth week of the term. The number of times you have already been absent, the status of your lab hours and, above all, the result of your midterm testing and other evaluations (chapter tests, quizzes, homework) are therefore your best guide to decide whether or not you should drop the course.

2) Attendance policy:

Since learning a foreign language is a participatory endeavor, attendance is mandatory at all class meetings. Students are allowed to miss no more than four classes during the term. Students who exceed the maximum number of allowable absences will find that their final grade will be adversely affected.

3) Language lab:

Italian 101 students are required to go to work on their listening and reading skills with the material provided on their Blackboard Learn site for Italian 101. Students need to spend 10 hours per term on the activities assigned in cyberspace. Blackboard Learn can be accessed through Blackboard Learn (<https://learn.dcollege.net/>) or on DrexelOne (<http://one.drexel.edu/>) by clicking on "My Courses".

4) Final exam:

Please note: The scheduling of final exams is done by SAS on a University-wide basis. The final exam date cannot be changed and may not correlate to the class meeting time/days . Final exam week runs Monday through Saturday. If you miss your final exam, your instructor is under no obligation to provide you an alternate time to make-up the exam.

EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOME

This course will provide students with a fundamental understanding of the Italian language in several core competencies. Specifically, the five areas of assessment are: listening, reading, spoken interaction, spoken production, and writing. Below is a table intended to clarify the expected learning outcome for students of this Italian 101 course, which align with the ACTFL standards for language learners at the “Novice Low/Mid” level. For more information on these metrics, please see the ACTFL standards online.

Listening	Reading	Spoken Interaction	Spoken Production	Writing
The student can recognize familiar words and very basic phrases concerning themselves, their family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	The student can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices or posters or in catalogues.	The student can interact in a simple way, provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help the student to formulate the intended thought. The student can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	The student can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where he or she lives and people such as friends or family.	The student can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. The student can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering name, nationality, and address on a hotel registration form.

5) Grading: A + : 98-100, A: 93-97, A - : 90-92; B + : 87-89, B: 83-86, B - : 80-82; C + : 77-79, C: 73-76, C - : 70-72; D + : 67-69, D: 63-66, D - : 60-62.

Oral Exams

Both the midterm and the final exam will have an oral component. Specific dates and times will be arranged. Failure to appear at the appointed time will result in a grade of F.

Written midterm and final exams

OTHER RESOURCES:

The Conversation Network:

Through the English Language Center, located on the first floor of the Language and Communication Center, Italian language students may sign up for a conversation partner. The Conversation Network is designed to give Drexel students an opportunity to meet and converse with a foreign student who has come to Drexel to learn English. This program is not designed to replace daily preparation for class, but rather can provide a forum for informal student interaction. Students may sign up for the Conversation Network by stopping by the English Language Center, or sending an e-mail to: Conversation.Network@drexel.edu or by phoning them at (215) 895-2022.
