

Housing and Dining Agreement for Fall 2010-Summer 2011

Main Campus

This Housing and Dining Agreement (“Agreement”) is between the undersigned student (“Resident”) and Drexel University (“University”), acting through its Offices of Campus Dining and Housing and Residential Living. It sets forth the terms and conditions by which Resident will live in accommodations owned or leased by the University and use campus dining provided by the University. The University agrees to provide Resident with facilities, services, and a living/learning environment at a specific cost. The Resident agrees to use University facilities and services in a manner appropriate to the University’s purpose as a private non-profit institution of higher education. This Agreement will be effective on the date the Resident electronically submits the housing application (the “Application”), together with the required deposit, to the University. The information set forth in the Application shall be deemed incorporated into this Agreement.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Residency Requirement: The University requires all students, who are non-transfer, first-year undergraduate students under the age of 21 at the time of application and/or matriculation as a student at University, to live in the University residences for their first three academic quarters. The only exceptions to this residency requirement are for students who are married or students who reside with their parents and/or permanent guardian and commute to campus. The University requires that all first-year undergraduate students, including students transferring from other institutions, living in the main campus residence halls to participate in either the Gold, Blue, or Platinum Dining Plan.

2. Eligibility: Only registered students, including students on co-op assignments, are eligible for University housing. University students not registered for classes by week three of an academic quarter will be removed from housing and this Agreement will be terminated immediately and the Resident will be liable for cancellation fees in accordance with the terms of Sections 9 and 16 of this Agreement.

3. Obligations: By agreeing to the terms of this Agreement, the Resident agrees to adhere to all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances, and University policies, procedures and regulations, including those set forth in the Student Handbook. The University requires all students entering the University to show proof of immunization against certain vaccine-preventable diseases before arriving on campus. Failure to satisfy the immunization requirements may prevent Resident from checking in and/or being asked to vacate housing. If Resident breaches any provision of this Agreement, Resident may be subject to loss of housing, disciplinary action and may be liable for the damages. This Agreement becomes legally binding on the date that the Resident electronically submits the Application, together with the required deposit, to the University.

4. Housing Deposit: A non-refundable $200 housing deposit (the “Deposit”) must be paid by the applicable deadline specified in the Application or at the time of application, whichever is later. If a Resident lives on campus for all quarters indicated on the application or if a Resident terminates the Agreement for Acceptable Reason #16(iii) or (iv), a Resident’s housing deposit will be credited to the Resident’s Bursar account.

5. Payment: The Resident agrees to pay the all applicable charges for the housing to which Resident is assigned, any cancellation fees assessed, and, if applicable, the dining plan selected by Resident. All such charges shall be payable to "Drexel University" and the Resident will be billed through the University’s Bursar's Office. Payments are due in accordance with the schedule posted by the University’s Bursar's Office at www.drexel.edu/bursar

6. Term of Agreement: The Term of this Agreement shall be up to one full academic year (Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer Quarters). Agreements entered into mid-year shall be in force through the end of the applicable summer quarter.

7. Hall and Room Assignment: Hall and room assignments are made in the order in which Applications (together with a Deposit) are submitted to the University. For both new and returning students every effort is made to honor a Resident's preference for roommate, room type, and location; however, the University cannot guarantee any specific requests. THE UNIVERSITY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO CHANGE A RESIDENT'S HALL AND ROOM ASSIGNMENT AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON.

8. Check In: Upon initial arrival to a residence hall, a Resident is required to complete the check-in section of the Room Condition Report (“RCR”). It is the responsibility of the Resident to review the condition of the assigned room and to sign the RCR. The RCR officially documents the condition of the room at check-in. Completion of the RCR is vital to the University’s policy of assessing damage charges to the appropriate Resident throughout the academic year and at check-out. Failure to complete the RCR and submit a copy to the front desk will result in the Resident accepting the room “as is” and being responsible for all damages assessed at the time of check-out. After the RCR is completed, the Resident will receive a key to his/her room

9. Failure to Check In (No Show): A Resident is required to check into the residence halls during the approved check-in periods. In the event that the Resident does not check -in during the designated check-in period, he/she may be designated as a “No Show” and will be charged Cancellation Fees in accordance with Section 16, below. The University may terminate the Agreement and/or reassign the Resident's room to another Resident. If a Resident will not be able to arrive during the check-in period, it is important that he/she contact the University in writing, by email or the US Postal Service, no later than the last check-in day. Notice should be sent to the following office:

Office of University Housing
101 N. 34th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104
housing@drexel.edu

10. Residence Hall Closures and Housing During Breaks: The undergraduate residence halls are closed during the period between the end of one quarter and the beginning of the next. Accommodations for housing during these breaks are by special arrangement within specified halls only. A per diem rate will be charged to Resident for housing during breaks, which is in addition to the regular per term rate. All terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply to all housing accommodations during breaks.

Residents of first-year halls are not eligible for housing during breaks between the fall and winter quarters, as these halls are closed during this period. Residents in returning student halls are eligible for housing during breaks, with the exception of the end of the year holiday period. The closing notices for each term should be consulted for specific closing dates.

11. Check Out: A Resident leaving at the expiration or termination of the Agreement must follow the check-out procedures. A Resident is required to complete an Express Check-Out Form at the front desk. Checking out does not constitute termination of this Agreement.

12. Damages: The Resident agrees not to deliberately or negligently destroy, deface, damage, remove or alter the condition of their assigned room, residence hall or University property. Students are liable for all damages assessed in their bedroom and/or suite. If liability cannot be determined within any residence floor, wing or hall, the University reserves the right to charge a group collectively. All outstanding damage assessment charges will be billed to a Resident's University account and must be satisfied in accordance with the University Bursar's Office payment schedule.

13. Room Entry: The University reserves the right to enter a Resident's room for the purpose of routine maintenance, inspection and repair, preservation of health, safety and quietude, investigation and in cases of emergency.

14. Liability: The University shall not be liable for any loss or damage to a Resident's personal property, whether such loss or damage is caused by fire or other casualty, theft, or any other cause. The University recommends that Residents secure personal property insurance or homeowners' or renters' insurance to cover their personal items while a Resident.

15. Single Room Buyouts: The University may offer residents the opportunity to keep a bedroom that is normally listed as double occupancy as a single occupancy room if space permits. Residents will be contacted if deemed eligible for this program. Upon agreeing to participate in this program, a Resident will be charged the single room buyout rate based on their housing type. The housing term charge for Residents electing to participate in the single room buyout program will be increased by the amount of the applicable single room buyout rate, and will be included in the calculation of the cancellation fees described in Section 16. Residents who wish to cancel their participation in the Single Room Buyout Program, but retain a housing assignment, will be responsible for a cancellation fee based upon the amount of the applicable Single Room Buyout Rate and calculated in accordance with the cancellation fee schedule described in Section 16. University Housing will not remove the second set of furniture from the Resident's room. Residents who opt to not participate in the program are required to keep their room in such a condition that another Resident may take immediate occupancy. If University Housing determines that the room is not available for double occupancy, the current Resident will be charged the Single Room Buyout rate.

16. Cancellations:

Request for Release from Housing Agreement (Cancellation): Any Resident requesting cancellation of the Agreement must complete and submit a Request for Release form to University Housing along with appropriate supporting documentation to the following office:
