Spring 2011 Schedule of Events

Mary Poppins

Tuesday, April 12, 2011 @ 7:30PM

Academy of Music: 240 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA

The world's most famous nanny is arriving at the Kimmel Center! Combining the best of the original stories by P. L. Travers and the beloved Walt Disney film, the Tony Award®-winning MARY POPPINS is everything you'd hope for in a Broadway musical—and more. The show includes such wonderful songs as "Chim Chim Cher-ee," "A Spoonful of Sugar," "Let's Go Fly a Kite" and, of course, "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious." Let your imagination take flight at this perfectly magical musical!

Questlove of the Roots

Sunday, April 17, 2011 @ 8:00PM

Verizon Hall: 260 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA

An unconventional drummer, DJ, and producer, Questlove launched to stardom as a member of Grammy® winning band The Roots. He is internationally recognized for his expressive style, infused with hip-hop and multicultural elements. Questlove has collaborated on dynamic projects with musical artists spanning every genre—from pop to Broadway—including Christina Aguilera, John Mayer, Jay-Z, and Iggy Pop. Catch Questlove's spin on Paris of 100 years ago as he joins forces with surprise special guests!

Proliferation of the Imagination

Thursday, April 21, 2011 @ 8:00PM

Wilma Theater: 265 S. Broad Street (Broad & Spruce Streets) Philadelphia, PA

Part of the Philadelphia International Festival of the Arts 2011, this premiere is a collaborative production of BalletX and The Wilma Theater. Inspired by Guillaume Apollinaire's "La Mamelles de Tiresias" (1917), Proliferation of the Imagination reinterprets Apollinaire's groundbreaking surrealist theater through an interdisciplinary multimedia work. The production will incorporate ballet, spoken text, video, originally composed music, with ingenious set design by Obie Award winner Steven Dufala.

Tosca

Friday, May 06, 2011 @ 8:00PM

Academy of Music: 240 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA

From Madama Butterfly and Turandot to La bohème's Mimi, composer giant Giacomo Puccini is famous for the grace and strength of his glorious heroines. Enter Floria Tosca, a diva with flashing eyes and a jealous heart who loves only one man -- Mario Cavaradossi. When he is taken as a political prisoner, his captor, Baron Scarpia, has met his match in Cavaradossi's faithful Tosca. Featuring the breathtaking Te Deum chorus and the renowned tenor anthem E lucevan le stelle, plus one of the most famed soprano arias in all of operatic repertoire, Vissi d'arte, Puccini's beloved work has not been seen at the Opera Company of Philadelphia for over ten years.

Discussion with Editors of The Onion

Wednesday, May 11, 2011 @ 7:00PM

Bossone's Mitchell Auditorium

Two long-time editors from the award-winning satirical news organization, The Onion, Chad Nacker and Joe Garden, will be coming to campus to deliver a multimedia presentation on pop culture, politics and today's media landscape. Chad is a senior writer who joined The Onion staff in 1997. A native of Appleton, Wisconsin, Chad moved to New York with The Onion in 2001, fulfilling his dream of living in a city covered in the world's finest grime. Joe was born in Chicago and raised in rural Wisconsin. He started at The Onion in Madison, WI in 1993, and created the recurring characters Jim Anhower and Jackie Harvey. He is currently the features editor, overseeing such popular features as American Voices, National News Highlights and the stat shot.

Tickets will go on sale through Drexel's Westphal College of Media Arts & Design on April 1st, but you can reserve tickets in advance of the event through the Pennoni Honors College by signing up during Honors Ticket Day!

DC Bus Trip

Saturday, May 14, 2011 @ 9:00AM for Departure (Return at Approximately 9:00PM)

Bus will depart from and return to 33rd and Chestnut Sts. (in front of Drexel University Bookstore)

Join the Honors Program for a visit to the nation's capitol. You'll have the day to do as you wish in Washington, DC. From the Lincoln Memorial and the Capitol Building to the Smithsonian and the White House, there is no shortage of sites and attractions in Washington, DC!

Philadelphia Phillies vs. Cincinnati Reds: Dollar Dog Night

Monday, May 23, 2011 @ 7:05

Citizens Bank Park

Miss Saigon

Tuesday, May 24, 2011 @ 8:00PM

Walnut Street Theater: 825 Walnut St, Philadelphia, PA

A classic love story is brought up-to-date in one of the most stunning theatrical spectacles of all time. In Miss Saigon, the creators of Les Misérables bring Puccini's Madame Butterfly to the modern world in a moving testament to the human spirit. In the turmoil of the Vietnam War, an American soldier and a Vietnamese girl fall in love, only to be separated during the fall of Saigon. Their struggles to find each other over the ensuing years end in tragedy for her and a fighting chance for the child he never knew he had.

NOTICE OF EVENTS RULES AND EXPECTATIONS

All ticketed events are available to students of the Drexel University Honors Program on a first-come, first-served basis. Tickets are available to Honors students only—unless otherwise authorized by Honors Program Staff—and will be distributed approximately one week prior to each event. Students must sign up in the Pennoni Honors College Main Office (5016 MacAlister Hall), and leave a $20 cash refundable deposit for each Honors student on the list (unless otherwise advertised). Each student may sign up for no more than her/himself and one additional Honors student. If in doubt about availability, call or stop by the Honors Office. Also, be sure to regularly check your Drexel University e-mail and the Pennoni Honors College website's "News and Events" page (drexel.edu/honors/events) for additional programs and events.

Unless an emergency occurs (e.g., medical or family emergency accompanied by proof), refunds will not be given for student cancellations fewer than three (3) business days prior to the event. Tickets must be picked up at least three (3) business days prior to the event; otherwise, the ticket and deposit will be forfeited. The refundable deposit will be available for pick-up starting on the business day following the performance. Make sure to bring your ticket stub and program booklet or other proof of attendance (e.g., digital photos of yourself at the event) when picking up your deposit. Deposits must be picked up no later than one full week after the date of the event.

Honors events—both ticketed and non-ticketed—are offered as a benefit for members of the Honors Program. This service to students should be treated with honesty, respect, and adherence to all guidelines included in this notice. Any attempt to falsify information for the purpose of reserving and claiming tickets (including, but not limited to, illegitimately using the name, University ID number, and/or e-mail address of other members of the Drexel University community to reserve tickets for Honors events) is a violation of Drexel University Conduct policy (drexel.edu/judicial/policies.html). Honors Program students who violate this policy will risk suspension from Honors events participation; suspension or expulsion from the Honors Program; and referral to the University Conduct Board.

For additional information regarding this "Notice of Events Rules and Expectations," e-mail the Honors Program Staff at honorscollege@drexel.edu.
