Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note:

Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line G. Other credits. You might be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as the earned income tax credit and tax credits for education and child care expenses. If you do so, your paycheck will be larger but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero ("0") on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment - or to take another adverse action against you - must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
  - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
  - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
  - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
  - you are on public assistance;
  - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.
- In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For Information about your Federal rights contact:

New Jersey Residents

If you are a resident of New Jersey, you may claim exemption from Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax withholding by completing the attached form Employee's Statement of Non-Residence in Pennsylvania and Authorization to Withhold Other State's Income Tax (Form REV-419 EX).

Generally, Drexel University will not withhold New Jersey income tax from your paychecks, since the credit for income taxes paid for Philadelphia city wage tax, will offset any New Jersey tax liability on your earnings from Drexel. However, if you have income from other sources in New Jersey, you may still have a tax liability. If you still wish to have New Jersey income tax withheld from your pay, you must complete a Form NJ-W4 (which can be found at www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation/pdf/current/njw4.pdf).

REV-419 EX (05-10)
Employee's Nonwithholding
Application Certificate
20

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Purpose. Complete Form REV-419 so that your employer can withhold the correct Pennsylvania personal income tax from your pay. Complete a new Form REV-419 every year or when your personal or financial situation changes. Photocopies of this form are acceptable.

Note: Unless the state of residence changes, residents of the reciprocal states listed in the next paragraph do not need to refile this application every year.

Who is Eligible for Nonwithholding? You may be entitled to nonwithholding of PA personal income tax if you incurred no liability for income tax the preceding tax year and/or you anticipate that you will incur no liability for income tax during the current tax year, according to the Special Tax Provisions of section 304 of the Tax Reform Code, the Servicemember Civil Relief Act (SCRA) or as a resident of the reciprocal state of Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia and your employer agrees to withhold the income tax from that state.

When to Claim? File this certificate with your employer as soon as you determine you are entitled to claim nonwithholding. You must file a certificate each year you are eligible (see Note above for an exception). If you are employed by more than one employer you must file a separate REV-419 with each employer.

Responsibilities of Employee. You must revoke this certification within 10 days from the day you anticipate you will incur PA personal income tax liability for the current tax year. To discontinue or revoke this certification, submit notification in writing to your employer. Claimants who qualify for complete Tax Forgiveness under section 304 of the Tax Reform Code must file a PA-40, Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax Return, and Schedule SP to claim Tax Forgiveness even if they are eligible for nonwithholding.

Under the SCRA, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from PA personal income tax on your wages if (i) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in PA in compliance with military orders; (ii) you are present in PA solely to be with your spouse; and (iii) you and your spouse both maintain the same domicile (state residency) in another state. If you claim exemption under the SCRA, enter your state of domicile (legal residence) on Line d below and attach a copy of your spousal military identification card and your spouse's current military orders to form REV-419.

Responsibilities of Employer. If you agree not to withhold PA tax because your employee is a resident of a reciprocal state, you must withhold the other state's tax.

Retain Form REV-419 with your records. You are required to submit a copy of this certificate and accompanying attachments to the PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, BUREAU OF BUSINESS TRUST FUND TAXES, PO BOX 280904, HARRISBURG, PA 17128-0904, when:

1. you have reason to believe this certificate is incorrect;
2. the PA taxable gross compensation of any employee who claimed either exemption from nonwithholding a or b below exceeds $1,625 for any quarter;
3. the employee claims an exemption from withholding on the basis of residence in a reciprocal state (Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia) and therefore, you agree to withhold income tax of the employee's state of residence; or

Automatic Enrollment for Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Acknowledgement

The University retirement plan is a defined contribution 403(b) program which allows eligible faculty and professional staff to make contributions and receive University contributions. Participants make contributions to the retirement plan on a pre-tax basis for distributions at a later date. If eligible, the University will match any percent that you contribute, up to a maximum of 6% per pay and provide an additional 3% or 5% per pay depending on if you are under or over the age of 50. Details on the eligibility for the University Match can be found under the Retirement Plan FAQ's on the HR Website:

<http://www.drexel.edu/hr/benefits/retirement/duretirefaq/>

Adjunct faculty and union employees may contribute their own money into the plan, but are not eligible for University contributions.

The chart below is an example of how the program works based on some sample employee contributions:

Full-time Faculty and Professional Staff who do not elect into the 403(b) Plan within 31 days of their hire date will be automatically enrolled with our default vendor, TIAA-CREF, at a 2% per pay contribution rate. If you do not wish to participate, you must actively waive participation in the retirement plan.

To ensure that you are not defaulted, please be sure to enroll within your 31 day enrollment window that coincides with your Health Benefits Enrollment. To enroll or waive in the retirement plan, you will need to log into DrexelOne (www.one.drexel.edu), our self-service website on or after your date of hire, and enter your election there.

For details on how to enroll, please visit <http://drexel.edu/hr/benefits/retirement/>. Note that changes can be made at any time, to be effective with the next available payroll, however retroactive contributions are not permitted.

Drexel University is committed to conducting its affairs in full compliance with the law and its own policies and procedures. Such adherence strengthens and promotes ethical and fair practices and treatment of all members of the University and those who conduct business with it.

While we have developed and implemented internal controls and procedures that we hope will deter and prevent improper conduct, there is an easy and confidential way for members of the University community to bring instances of suspected improper conduct to the attention of someone who can be counted upon to investigate the problem promptly and fairly, without any fear of retaliation.

The following hotlines may be used to report any improper conduct to the University's Chief Compliance Officers:

Drexel University: 866.358.1010 or https://secure.ethicspoint.com/domain/en/report\_custom.asp?clientid=14030

This hotline was created at the specific direction of the Board of Trustees. Every report is kept completely confidential. No information likely to reveal your identity will be shared with anyone else without your permission. Reporters will be completely protected from retaliation for having made good faith reports. The Chief Compliance Officer is required to report quarterly to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees on all matters reported to the hotline and the actions taken in response.

If you are aware of any conduct--act or omission--which you think violates University policy, rule or regulation, you are encouraged to report them to your supervisor or teacher, your Department Head, your Dean, or a Vice President; or to use the hotline. We owe it to ourselves to make this the best place it can be.

Questions about the hotlines may be addressed to the Chief Privacy Officer:

Workers' Compensation Information

The workers' compensation law provides wage loss and medical benefits to employees who cannot work, or who need medical care, because of a work-related injury.

Benefits are required to be paid by your employer when self-insured, or through insurance provided by your employer. Your employer is required to post the name of the company responsible for paying workers' compensation benefits at its primary place of business and at its sites of employment in a prominent and easily accessible place, including, without limitation, areas used for the treatment of injured employees or for the administration of first aid.

You should report immediately any injury or work-related illness to your employer.

Your benefits could be delayed or denied if you do not notify your employer immediately.

If your claim is denied by your employer, you have the right to request a hearing before a workers' compensation judge.

The Bureau of Workers' Compensation cannot provide legal advice. However, you may contact the Bureau of Workers' Compensation for additional general information at: 1171 South Cameron St, Room 103, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17104-2501; telephone number within Pennsylvania: 800.482.2383; telephone number outside of this Commonwealth: 717.772.4447; TTY: 800.362.4228 (for hearing and speech impaired only); www.state.pa.us, PA Keyword: workers comp.

Notice to Employee and Employee Acknowledgement of Rights and Responsibilities (Work Related Injuries)

1. If you suffer a work-related injury or illness, your employer or its workers' compensation insurance company must pay for surgical and medical services, services rendered by physicians or other health care providers, medicines and supplies, which are reasonable, necessary and related to the work-related injury.
2. Your employer has posted in the departments of Human Resources and Risk Management at least six designated health care providers. In order to ensure that your reasonable and necessary medical treatment and supplies will be paid for by your employer or its workers' compensation insurance company during the first ninety (90) days of treatment, you must select and visit one of the listed health care providers, and continue to visit that health care provider or another of the listed health care providers for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of the first visit. As required by law, this list will include no more than four coordinated care organizations (as approved by the state), and no fewer than three physicians. You are permitted to switch from one health care provider on the list to another health care provider on the list during the ninety (90) day period.
3. The employer is not permitted to include on this list a physician or health care provider who is employed, owned or controlled by your employer or its workers' compensation carrier unless that employment, ownership or control is disclosed on the list.
4. You have the right to seek treatment from a provider not appearing on the list (referral provider) if you are referred to such provider by one of the designated providers appearing on the list. Your employer shall pay for the reasonable and necessary treatment rendered by the referral provider for the work-related injury.
5. You have the right to seek emergency medical treatment from any provider, but subsequent non-emergency treatment shall be rendered by a designated provider for the remainder of the ninety (90) day period.
6. If one of the designated providers prescribes or recommends invasive surgery, you may seek and receive an additional opinion from any health care provider of your own choice. The charge for this consultation will be paid by your employer. If the additional opinion differs from the opinion provided by the designated provider, you may choose which course of treatment to follow: provided, however, that the second opinion includes a specific and detailed course of treatment. If you choose to follow the procedures designated in the additional or second opinion, such procedures shall be performed by one of the designated providers for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of your visit to the physician rendering the second or additional opinion.
7. With regard to all other treatment (i.e., that not involving invasive surgery), you have the right to seek treatment or medical consultation from a non-designated provider during the ninety (90) day period, but such services shall be at your own expense during the applicable period of ninety (90) days.
8. Following the first ninety (90) days of treatment with the designated physician or other health care provider, subsequent treatment may be provided by any health care provider of your own choice. You must notify your employer that your care has been transferred to a non-designated provider within five (5) days of your first visit to the non-designated provider of your choice. Your employer may not be required to pay for treatment rendered by a non-designated provider prior to receiving this notification. However, the employer shall pay for these services once notified, unless the treatment is found to be unreasonable by a Utilization Review Organization, under Subchapter C (relating to medical treatment review).

I hereby acknowledge that I have received this notice, and that I understand my rights and responsibilities as set forth herein.
