

Pediatric Update: Gastroenterology for the Primary Care Provider

Friday, November 10, 2017
7:15am– 12:30pm

This conference is designed to provide pediatric care providers with focused, up-to-date educational sessions on a number of hot topics in pediatric gastroenterology. Given by our team of GI physicians, attendees will have the opportunity to enhance their knowledge and practice regarding an array of common but often challenging entities, including diagnosis and management of inflammatory bowel disease, neonatal cholestasis, constipation, non-alcoholic fatty liver disease and gluten free diets in children.
