Executive Leadership in Academic Technology and Engineering

ELATE in Brief - July 2016

Executive Leadership in Academic Technology and Engineering (ELATE at Drexel®), aims to increase and sustain the number and impact of academic leaders in STEM fields. ELATE’s intensive one-year, part-time fellowship of executive education, personal leadership assessments and coaching, and networking and mentoring activities supports the ELATE Fellows as they:

- Develop a broader vision of their role within their university.
- Enhance their leadership effectiveness, understanding of strategic finance, and ability to lead organizational change.
- Become part of an active resource network of national leaders connecting through continuing professional development.

ELATE has been recognized with awards from the

- National Science Foundation
- Alfred P Sloan Foundation
- Henry Luce Foundation
- WEPAN – Women in Engineering ProActive Network

Program Statistics

Since the program’s 2012 inauguration, 52 universities and colleges have sponsored fellows. Eight institutions have had three or more fellows.
