Accelerated MS in Psychology Program
Admissions Eligibility

The following criteria have been met and therefore ______________________(student name) is eligible for potential admission into the Accelerated MS Psychology Program at Drexel University.

Minimum SAT score of 1100 _______ (SAT score)

Current Undergraduate Cumulative GPA ≥ 3.5 ________ (current cumulative GPA)

No undergraduate courses have been repeated

Student has not received a grade lower than a “C” in any undergraduate course work

Minimum GRE score of 1100 (with no section scored under 500)

___________ (GRE score total)  ____________ (Analytical Writing)

______________ (Verbal)  ______________ (Quantitative)

As of Fall 20______ this student will be enrolled as a 4th year undergraduate and is expected to graduate with a B.S. degree in June 20 ______.

Attached letter of support from Future Graduate Mentor

_____________________________                                      _____________
(Student Signature)                                      (Date)

______________________________                                     _____________
(Current Undergraduate Advisor)                      (Date)

______________________________                                      _____________
(Future Graduate Mentor)                                (Date)

______________________________                                        _____________
(Program Director)                                          (Date)