Benefits of being a captain:

- Leadership
- Knowledge
- Responsibility
- Communication
- Handling winning & losing
- Control of emotions
- Ability to provide input & feedback

All individuals participating in intramural sports are subject to the Drexel University Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards handbook. Issues of harassment, violence, disorderly conduct or detrimental behavior will be reported and handled according to university protocol.

1. The captain is required to attend a mandatory captain’s meeting. The captain will be held responsible to inform the team of their games, program policies and game rules.
2. Captain will serve as point of contact for Intramural Sports Program and communicate information to teammates.
3. In addition, captain communicates any questions/concerns to the IM Sports Program on behalf of team.
4. Captain should know and understand playing rules.
5. Captains should have understanding of program policies – specific attention to sportsmanship, ID policy, forfeit policy- and disseminate information to teammates.
6. The captain should inform the team to arrive 15 minutes prior to game time, so that ID’s can be verified with the scorekeeper/supervisor.
7. Teams must be ready to start play at game time!
8. The captain is responsible for his/her team at all times during play
9. The captain is only team official that will be recognized by the sport supervisor when during a game there are questions, concerns/ or problems with the game officials or sport supervisors.
10. All problems/concerns on site will be coordinated via sport supervisor, game officials and team captains.
11. Protest Forms must be completed within 24 hours. The Coordinator of Intramurals will attempt to rectify situation, but if warranted, protest will be taken to an Appellate Committee. Committee information available in Intramural Office.
12. At the conclusion of a league/tournament, team captains will be asked to provide an evaluation of their team’s experience in the event. This is an opportunity for the team and captain to provide feedback, ideas and input for the IM Sports Program.
13. Captains will also be able to provide input on award recipients each term.