Intercultural Advocate
Position Description

Responsibilities: Intercultural Advocates are paraprofessional staff of the Student Center for Inclusion and Culture (SCIC) and the LGBTQA Student Center. Intercultural Advocates are student leaders who encourage an inclusive and global environment at Drexel through education and outreach.

The responsibilities and expectations of Intercultural Advocates are as follows:

- Create cultural programming for students
- Plan and help develop social justice and diversity workshops on campus
- Represent the SCIC at Drexel and community events
- Create social media presence of the SCIC and the LGBTQA Student Center
- Create publicity related to all aspects of the SCIC and LGBTQA Student Center work
- Serve as liaisons for programing and trainings for offices and departments include, but not limited to, Residential Living
- Support day-to-day operations of the SCIC and LGBTQA Student Center
- Work in the office for 6 to 10 hours a week.
- Be available for approximately 3 hours of evening activity per week, as needed
- Other duties as assigned

Requirements:

- Enrolled as a full-time student at Drexel
- Qualified for federal work-study funds through Financial Aid
- Interested in diversity and social justice programming and education
- Possess desire to present and encourage dialogue among students
- Ability to work some evenings and an occasional weekend
- Ability to attend staff meetings and trainings

Compensation: Based on federal work-study guidelines, students will be compensated up to the pre-approved number of hours per pay period allowed based on their available funds

Starting Date: Priority will be given to those that apply by July 6 but applications will be accepted on a Rolling basis.

Application: Contact Tatiana Diaz at Tad89@drexel.edu for application details