Welcoming Remarks, Freshman Admissions and Financial Aid Overview

10:00 – 10:45 a.m.

You are our most important partner in helping students discover the right university or college home. That's why we want to discuss with you our commitment to the success of every one of your students who seeks admission to the University. As part of this session, you will receive an overview of Drexel's educational and admissions philosophies, cooperative education program, and application and financial aid processes. The highlight of this session will be an interactive panel of Financial Aid representatives who will discuss important considerations when students and families are planning how to finance a college education.

Walking Tours of the University City Main Campus

10:45 – 12:00 p.m.

All tours will depart from the A.J. Drexel Picture Gallery, Main Building (Building 1)

Join current students in exploring Drexel's campus and University City neighborhood. Students will guide you through academic buildings, including Gerri C. LeBow Hall, the Papadakis Integrated Sciences Building, the URBN Center, and the historic Main Building. This hour-long walking tour will also highlight Drexel's expanded recreation center, and a residence hall.

Lunch and Panel Discussion with Current Students

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

As our guest today, we invite you to join Drexel Admissions staff and current students for a catered lunch and panel discussion. You will also have time to browse our Student Center and University Bookstore during this portion of the day.

Academic Overviews

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Learn more about Drexel's academic offerings through brief theme-based overviews, which will include student stories and work examples that highlight a sampling of our 80+ undergraduate majors. To learn more specifics about academic majors, we recommend you stay for the Closing Reception immediately following these overviews.
