01 DESIGN

Drexel Fashion Show,
URBN Outfitters Headquarters

The aesthetic appeal of the structures and items that surround us are all thanks to the design of artists around the world. Whether it be fashion, architecture, or even web design, there is a creative mind behind the process. Designers work to build appeal as a means to an end. The goal could be to captivate an audience that sits by a runway or invoke emotion to drive a social movement. No matter what your objective is, with a Drexel education, you can use your passion for design to make a difference.

Through studio courses and close interaction with dedicated expert faculty who work in your respective fields, you'll conceptualize and create innovative art, hone your design skills, and be prepared to respond to a rapidly changing and competitive industry. Whether your interests lie in taking fashion designs from sketches to the runway, combining videogames and educational strategies to teach children, or developing green spaces in office buildings, our cooperative education program will blend your classwork with firsthand experience working one on one with clients and collaborating with industry professionals — all before you graduate.

By the time you receive your degree, you'll have made your mark through experiences you won't find at any other university. Through Drexel's design programs, you can utilize your talents to shape the world around you. Learn more about our design programs at drexel.edu/academics.

ARTS

Drexel Performing Arts

Capturing emotion, power, and beauty, art is the most ancient and universal form of expression. It's part of human nature to creatively channel our imagination, and those who do it best make the world a profound and rewarding place to live in.

Whether you want to express the visual elements of a song through dance, analyze and interpret the meaning behind a historic art movement, or capture an impactful moment through the lens of your camera, Drexel will expand your critical thinking skills and nurture your intellectual curiosity. Through our supportive community, which ranges from performing and visual artists to musicians and historians, Drexel will allow you to explore and realize your individual vision.

In a chaotic world, it is those who breathe life into our surroundings that keep cultures alive and flourishing. If this sounds like you, Drexel will help you hone your talents and bring your ideas to fruition. Learn more about our arts programs at drexel.edu/academics.

MEDIA

Drexel's URBN Center

The basis of influential art is storytelling. The medium used to tell a story, however, has constantly evolved throughout time. These variations include song, television, theater, augmented reality, and more. If you swell with pride the moment that your story strikes a chord with an audience, then Drexel can help you to develop as a dynamic composer, communicator, and producer of entertainment.

At Drexel, you'll work directly with industry professionals to develop your voice and build the foundation for your future career. From day one, you'll be immersed in all there is to know about visuals, function, technology, and business. Through collaborative projects, you'll act on these ideas while you push industry standards, from experiencing the music business through our student-run record label, to turning a story idea into a stage production, to writing and directing your first feature film.

By the time you graduate and enter the workforce, you will have built a résumé of real-world experience that will set you apart from your peers. Learn more about our media programs at drexel.edu/academics.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

In 1891, A.J. Drexel founded this University with the dream to establish an institution that would fully prepare its students to excel in their future careers. To meet his vision, Drexel has developed a model of learning that takes students beyond the typical collegiate experience by combining world-class academics with real-world application. Our students are challenged to apply what they've learned in the classroom by working alongside mentors and industry professionals who push the boundaries of knowledge and achievement.

As a leading research institution, Drexel carries a long and storied history of innovation. Here, you'll not only assist faculty and staff with major projects, but you'll also have the opportunity to take the lead in your own studies — including graduate-level research during your first year — in our state-of-the-art facilities and labs. You will be encouraged to ask important questions and consider how the answers you find impact the world around us.

For over 100 years, our curriculum has also featured our cooperative education program, which enables students to test-drive different careers while learning side by side with the leaders of their respective fields. Through Drexel Co-op, students can build an impressive résumé and gain up to 18 months of professional work experience in the United States and globally at Fortune 500 companies, nonprofits, startups, a variety of governmental agencies, and more. The majority of these positions are full-time and paid, and those that are carry a median six-month salary of over $19,000. Co-op will allow you to explore your options and narrow down your interests, ensuring you are on a fulfilling career path that meets your needs and expectations. With each experience, you'll gain a unique working perspective that can't be found in any textbook, allowing you to serve as a knowledgeable resource for fellow classmates and professors as well as inform classroom instruction moving forward.

The Steinbright Career Development Center, one of the largest collegiate co-op and career services teams in the world, sets you up for success at Drexel from day one. Whether you're looking for potential co-op employers, research opportunities, or post-graduate endeavors, Steinbright connects you to Drexel's constantly growing network of employers and industry leaders while also building your résumé and interview skills through workshops and information sessions. Our unique combination of world-class career services and dedicated counseling professionals will help guide you to discover your interests and develop your professional tools.

ENHANCED OPPORTUNITIES

At Drexel, learning goes well beyond the traditional classroom. We encourage our students to pursue different opportunities, such as studying abroad, immersing themselves in the local community, and developing their own course of study.

Honors Program: At the Pennoni Honors College, the Honors Program serves as a catalyst for enhanced intellectual exploration. Composed of curious and active learners, this program offers exclusive access to Philadelphia events, advising and mentoring, dedicated housing, and a Living Learning Community, along with specialized opportunities to complete service and develop leadership skills. Honors students in this program are scholastic ambassadors at Drexel, raising their academic experience to the next level.

Civic Engagement: We believe in the importance of giving back to local communities — there are always opportunities to make an impact and serve the community here. Students can get involved on campus through Drexel's Lindy Center for Civic Engagement and the Dornsife Center for Neighborhood Partnerships during community-based learning courses and volunteering for community service. But our impact doesn't stop there; our dedication reaches out globally to improve the world around us.

Study Abroad in Capri, Italy

Custom-Designed Major: The Custom-Designed program is suited for highly motivated students whose interdisciplinary curiosity and ambition cannot be satisfied by a traditional major. This path enables you to pursue an individualized course of study in place of an existing major, either by developing a plan with your advisor or by combining existing majors and minors to match your career goals. As a student in this unique program, you'll be advised by staff from the Pennoni Honors College and mentored by a Drexel faculty member who has expertise in at least one of the areas in your course of study.

Global Opportunities: These options include study abroad, international co-op, and more. All Drexel students can take advantage of study abroad, which enables them to live and learn in another country while immersing themselves in the culture. Using our worldwide connections, students have been able to choose from six continents and 65 countries! International co-op takes study abroad one step further; students not only live in another country but also gain work experience as they test-drive a potential career. Students currently on international co-op are working in over 35 countries.

Independence Hall, Philadelphia

A CONNECTED COMMUNITY

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a revolutionary town founded on revolutionary thinking — much like the ambition Drexel students have for influencing change in the world. As the sixth largest city in the United States, the City of Brotherly Love is an extension of our campus and, as a student here, you'll take full advantage of all it has to offer.

Philly culture is known for being as diverse as its many neighborhoods. From our University City Campus in the hub of Philadelphia's higher-learning community, it's easy to get to the stadiums in South Philly, take in some history in Old City, and enjoy the park in Rittenhouse Square. When you're not in classes, there is plenty to do, no matter how you like to spend your free time. Being in the fourth most walkable city in the country according to Walk Score has its perks: concerts, performances, restaurants, and athletic events are all easy to access.

Public transportation is just steps away from campus — it's easy to enjoy an authentic cheesesteak and then visit the famous Philadelphia Museum of Art. You will find that all areas of the city are interconnected by simple means of travel, and getting to historic sites around the city or connecting to various locations across the country is an easy task. Living in Philadelphia provides access to everything from farmers' markets in Lancaster County to ski and snowboarding locations in the Pocono Mountains to the best beaches in the Mid-Atlantic.
