As a comprehensive global research university, Drexel is consistently ranked as one of the top 100 universities by U.S. News & World Report. Drexel has built a legacy around educating civically engaged students who are leaders in their fields and take pride in being master learners. We are also proud to be ranked in the top 8 percent of U.S. colleges and universities by The Wall Street Journal and Times Higher Education.

Through a unique curriculum, our renowned cooperative education, and a commitment to community, Drexel provides international students with an educational experience that will fully prepare them to engage with and excel in the world. We welcome all students from across the globe to experience our campus and community.

INNOVATIVE CURRICULUM
Academics at Drexel incorporate world-class faculty who are experts in their fields, the choice of over 80 majors and as many minors, and an individualized academic experience.

Experiential learning is a cornerstone of Drexel’s curriculum. Our cooperative education program, also known as co-op, enables students to test drive different careers through up to 18 months of work experience before they graduate. International students are able to fully participate in the co-op program and gain work experience in the U.S. and around the world.

PHILADELPHIA
Drexel was founded over 125 years ago in Philadelphia, PA, which today is the sixth largest city in the U.S. and the nation’s only World Heritage City. Our urban University City Campus is in the heart of Philadelphia’s higher learning community, which offers students numerous cultural, social, and civic engagement opportunities throughout the city.

Philadelphia also offers close proximity to New York City and Washington D.C., where students can make connections and access destinations across the United States.

RESEARCH

Drexel has a deep history of research and innovation, promoting student curiosity and the development of new knowledge. Many of our students begin graduate-level research as early as freshman year, gaining valuable experience and insights working with their peers and mentors right away. Drexel is proud to rank 25th in U.S. News & World Report’s list of Most Innovative Schools.

COMMUNITY

Drexel is committed to becoming the most civically engaged university in the nation. Our students are strongly connected with the community through community-based learning courses and opportunities for engagement. We have a thriving partnership with philanthropic organizations on local, national, and international levels.

STUDENT LIFE

Drexel has nine residence halls for students to live in, and our College Learning Communities help them build closer connections and relationships with other students in their major. Our students have the opportunity to be involved in over 400 clubs and organizations, including more than 70 cultural and religious organizations, 18 Division I sports teams, and many academic and professional organizations.
