

DEBORAH C. BRITTAIN

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, PREOD
CORPORATION

Deborah Brittain has over 40 years of community involvement spanning the fields of public and special education, child welfare, social justice, women's issues and the arts.

Brittain is currently the Executive Vice President of Preod Corporation, an executive search firm that places seasoned business executives on demand. She serves on the Board of Trustees of Simmons College and on the National Advisory Board of The Salvation Army. In addition, she is the Associate Dean of the Scott-Hawkins Leadership Institute sponsored by The Links, Incorporated. A native of Arlington, Virginia, Ms. Brittain holds a Bachelor's degree from Howard University and a Master's Degree from the Simmons School of Social Work.

Leading Through Involvement

Her accomplishments have included local, regional and national leadership positions in various organizations, including The National Council of Negro Women, The Polycystic Kidney Disease Foundation, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, The Legal Defense and Education Fund, The Urban League, The Princeton Symphony Orchestra and Jack and Jill of America. She has also been a member of the planning commissions for the public school systems of Alexandria, Virginia and Princeton, New Jersey. Brittain is a former Area Director, Vice President and President of the Association of Junior Leagues International. She recently completed an eight year term as an advisor to the Dean of Harvard Business School and a seven year term on the national board of the Recording for The Blind and Dyslexic.

Vision 2020 Visionary Delegate

Visionary Delegates are 13 women leaders who serve at-large, advising and assisting the National Delegates and the Vision 2020 National Office to achieve the mission of making shared leadership among women and men a national priority.

Member of Vision 2020's Leadership Circle, a national committee established to provide strategic guidance to Vision 2020.