

Suggested Packing List

The following is a list of items that guests should consider bringing on their visit to Drexel University.

Shower/Toiletries:

- Toothbrush, toothpaste, other dental care
- Soap, shampoo, conditioner
- Bathrobe and/or flip flops for the shower
- Iron/ironing board
- Hair dryer
- A bag or other receptacle to carry personal items to and from the bathroom
(trashcans are not included in individual rooms or suites)

Linens/Bedding:

If you have ordered a linen packet, it will include two (2) sheets, one (1) pillow, one (1) pillow case, one (1) blanket, one (1) towel, and one (1) washcloth. If you wish to bring any additional bedding items, please feel free to do so. If your group has not ordered linen packets, please bring the following:

- Sheets (for extra-long twin bed)
- Pillow(s) and pillowcase(s)
- Blanket(s)
- Towel(s) and washcloth(s)
- Mattress pad (optional)

Kitchen Facilities:

Each guest is responsible for supplying his/her own cookware and flatware. In traditional-style residence halls, there are communal kitchens with an industrial-size freezer, sink, oven, and stovetop on each floor. In suite-style residence halls, there are communal kitchens with a sink, oven, and stovetop on each floor; refrigerators and sinks are located in each suite. If you plan to buy food and cook in the residence hall, please consider bringing the following items:

- Utensils
- Bowls, cups, plates
- Pots, pans, skillets
- Dish towels / Paper towels
- Tupperware, plastic bags, and other storage items
- Dish soap and a cleaning sponge for washing dishes

What is in the residence hall rooms?

Each guest will have his/her own extra-long twin bed with mattress, desk, chair, set of drawers, and a wardrobe.

Besides the furniture listed above, there are no additional furnishings in the residence hall bedrooms. Therefore, you must bring additional decorations and furnishings if you wish to have them (rugs, pictures, hangers). Each room has one light fixture in the ceiling, so guests must bring their own additional lighting. All photos and other wall decorations must be removed when guests check out.

Other items we do NOT provide are:

- Toilet paper (one roll is supplied initially; more must be requested at the front desk)
- Paper towels
- Daily housekeeping for your rooms or bathroom
- Cleaning supplies
- Laundry soap
- Hangers
- All toiletries (shampoo, conditioner, body wash, etc.)
- TV or computers

For more information please contact the Conference Services at 215.895.0373 or by email at conferences@drexel.edu.