While most academic support services at Drexel can be found at the ARC in the Korman Center (Building 6), there are several other resources and offices around campus that can help you access the tools that best fit your individual needs. Use this map to help you navigate these resources – and stop by the ARC Help Desk in Korman if you’d like assistance figuring out where you can go next to get started.

SERVICE ........................................... BUILDING

Career Counseling ........................................ 81 – Suite 110
Center for Learning and Academic Success Services ........................................ 8 – Suite 032
Nursing, Public Health, and Biomedical Sciences Tutoring ........................................ 8 – Suite 032
STEM Support ........................................... 8 – Suite 032
Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation Bridge to the Doctorate
Disability Resources ........................................ 1 – Suite 228
Center for Autism and Neurodiversity ........................................... 8 – Suite 048
Drexel University Libraries ........................................... 15
English Language Center ........................................... 48
Cyber Learning Center ........................................... 178 – Room 1066
Center for Inclusive Education and Scholarship ........................................... 8 – Suite 222
Business Tutoring ........................................... 61 – Third floor
Undergraduate Research and Enrichment Programs ........................................... 20 – Second Floor
Graduate College ........................................... 1 – Suite 301
Thomas R. Kline School of Law Academic Skills Program ........................................... 90 – Room 351 & 353
College of Medicine Academic Support ........................................... 180

Drexel University
– Resources Around Campus