Welcome page

Welcome Dragons!

Housing and Residence Life is excited to welcome our new and returning Dragons to our residence halls and Greek houses! Living on campus is a big part of the college experience - an environment where students live, learn and engage, having experiences that will serve them for the rest of their lives.

On the following pages, you will be able to tell us about yourself and your housing needs and sign your housing agreement. You'll return to the portal to search for a roommate and as your final step, pick your space for the upcoming year. You have a lot to choose from, and we are here to help you along the way!

We are glad you will be joining us on campus! Click Start to begin your application.

Living Style Questionnaire

All students are asked to complete the living style questionnaire, regardless of preferred roommate.

Once this is complete, select "Save & Continue" to move to the next step.

Living Style Questionnaire

Please complete the following Living Style Questionnaire. This will enable you to search for potential roommates and allow other students to search for you. This step is required even if you have an intended roommate(s) in mind. The roommate matching step will open starting June 3rd and will close June 24th.

Some things to keep in mind as you complete this step:

- You may return to this step at any time to update your responses.
- Your responses below are preferences only, students should engage with one another to discuss preferences.
- During roommate matching, answers to these questions will show your percentage of compatibility with other students, most students report a match as successful between 50%-70%.
- During roommate matching, students may search on a specific question below to see how prospective roommate(s) responded.
- During roommate matching, students must have a completed housing application to appear in the roommate search results.

Personal Profile

In general I clean my room:

Weekly

I study best:

With background noise

When I fall asleep, I prefer:

Noise does not affect my sleep

I generally go to sleep:

10pm-Midnight

I generally wake up between:

Earlier than 7am

During my free time, I prefer:

A mixture of alone and social time

My preference is that guests visit my room:

Does not matter to me: Guest visitation

(PLEASE NOTE all buildings are smoke/vape free) - Personally, I smoke/vape:

Never

My spirituality/religious practices are an important component of my living experience:

On a daily/weekly basis

Share a few things about yourself a prospective roommate might like to know. Here are some prompts to assist with this:

- Music interests - Who is on your Spotify Wrapped?
- Hobbies/Leisure time - What does a weekend look for you? Do you participate in sports? Play an instrument? Have an interest in Greek Life?
- Spiritual/religious practices/observance - Is this a important part of your daily routine? If so, in what way?
- Food or other allergies - What's something you could eat every day or something you never want to see at your dinner table?
- Academic Areas of Interest - What do you plan to study?
- Room Preferences - What kind of room do you hope to live in (suite, traditional etc)?
- Temperature - Are you always cold? Always hot?
- Share anything else that a prospective roommate should know about you or your living preferences.

Please note that all students are expected to follow the housing guidelines outlined in the student code of conduct.

Spiritual/Religious Observance Needs for Housing

Housing Spiritual/Religious Observance Needs

The following question is an opportunity for students to share their spiritual/religious observance needs related to their on-campus living experience. The University has a number of housing options available to support your spiritual/religious observance needs. Students may complete a housing accommodation request form to describe how a housing accommodation will help resolve the conflict between their religious observance/beliefs and the University's standard requirements.

The request form must be completed by Monday, May 20, 2024. Students who complete a request form after May 20th will be considered as space allows.

We encourage all students at Drexel University to take advantage of the spectrum of resources available both on and off campus to support their spiritual development and identity. Click here to learn more and get connected with other incoming or current students.

Please review the following information before making a selection:

- If you are not seeking a Spiritual/Religious Accommodation, select I am not seeking a Housing Accommodation from the drop-down menu.
- If, due to your religious observance, you seek to live in a Ablution (wudhu) friendly environment, select I would like to request Ablution-friendly Housing from the drop-down menu.
- If, due to your religious observance, you seek to live in a Kosher Kitchen/Shabbat-friendly environment, select I would like to request Kosher/Shabbat-friendly Housing from the drop-down menu.
- If your religious observance/beliefs will not be addressed through Kosher/Shabbat friendly or Ablution (wudhu) friendly housing, please select I would like to request Religious/Spiritual Accommodation from the drop-down menu. You will be directed to provide information for how you can be supported in Drexel Housing.

Please Make A Selection:

1. I am not seeking a Housing Accommodation
2. I would like to request Ablution-friendly Housing
3. I would like to request Kosher/Shabbat-friendly Housing
4. I would like to request Religious/Spiritual Accommodation

LLC Essay Questions

Students who get accepted into a Living Learning Community (LLC) will be a part of a specialized living environment that connect students inside and outside the classroom. Each LLC is assigned to a specific area of a residence hall for the duration of their First-Year.

Please take some time to think about the questions below. Please note that you will not be able to return to this step to make edits. We suggest you type up your response to these questions in a separate document and paste final answers here.

You are applying for the following LLC:
Civic Engagement Living Learning Community

Why are you interested in the LLC community? (Please limit your response to one paragraph)

What type of experience(s) are you hoping to have as a member of this LLC community? e.g. programs, activities etc. (Please limit your response to one paragraph)

Important reminders when considering applying to this LLC:

- I will not get to choose my Residence Hall.
- My roommate will also need to be a member of the same LLC community
- If accepted, the deadline to withdraw from this LLC is Friday, May 24th

(Please select an option below)

I have read and agree to these LLC reminders
I am no longer interested in joining this LLC

Your responses will be reviewed by an LLC adviser. You will receive notification about your LLC application status via your Drexel email address by May 21st.

Select "Save & Continue" to submit your answers. You will not be able to edit your responses after submission.

Gender Inclusive Housing Interest

Gender-Inclusive Housing Interest

Drexel University offers a Gender-Inclusive Housing (GIH) option to support Drexel's ongoing commitment to develop environments that are welcoming and inclusive. Gender-Inclusive Housing was developed to enhance the residential living experience by allowing students to reside alongside individuals with whom they feel most comfortable, extending beyond individuals of the same sex, which means that your roommate may identify as male, female, non-binary, or other.

Gender-Inclusive Housing is optional. Students must expressly state and confirm their desire for this option.

Priority deadline to apply for the 2024-2025 Academic Year is May 20th.

Please note, the deadline to withdraw from GIH is May 24th.

2024-2025 Housing Agreement

Please review and sign the Housing Agreement and Addendum for the 2024-2025 University Housing (Quarter).

2024-2025 Housing Agreement

This Housing Agreement ("Agreement") is between the undersigned student (the "Resident") and Drexel University (the "University"), acting through its Office of Housing and Residence Life. It sets forth the terms and conditions by which the Resident will live in accommodations owned or leased by the University ("University Housing"). The University agrees to provide the Resident with facilities, services, and a living/learning environment at a specific cost on the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Resident agrees to use University facilities and services in a manner appropriate to the University's purpose as a private non-profit institution of higher education. This Agreement will be effective on the date the Resident electronically completes and submits the housing application (the "Application"), to the University via their Housing and Dining account accessible via <https://dx.drexel.edu/housing>. A housing assignment will not be offered without the required Deposit (if applicable, as defined below). The information set forth in the Application shall be deemed incorporated into this Agreement.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Residency and Dining Requirement: It is the mission of the University to provide a safe, clean, and comfortable living environment that is an essential part of a student's social and educational experience and contributes to the student's growth as a member of the University community and beyond. To facilitate that experience, full-time campus-based undergraduate students (except for transfer students), must live in University Housing or University-Affiliated Housing for their first and second years. As used in this agreement, the term "University Housing" includes University Residence Halls and Fraternity and Sorority Housing. First-Year students must live in a University Residence Hall; Second-Year (Sophomore) students must live in a University Residence Hall, University-Affiliated Housing or Fraternity and Sorority Housing with invitation from the organization. Drexel Campus Dining Plans are required for First-Year students living in a University Residence Hall.

2. Eligibility: Only full-time, registered, campus-based students, including students on Co-op assignments, are eligible to live in University Housing. Residents must be registered for classes by the beginning of week two of each academic term. Failure of Resident to be registered before the start of week two of each academic term will result in the immediate termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, for the Summer Quarter only, provided that Resident is registered for a minimum of three (3) credits, Resident shall be permitted to live in Fraternity and Sorority Housing. Exceptions for all other residents will be evaluated and determined on a case-by-case basis during the posted deadline, typically in the preceding summer quarter, and as space allows, or in the event the University is not providing in-person instruction. The Resident will be responsible for cancellation fees in accordance with the terms of Sections 9 and 16 of this Agreement.

As the Resident, I understand that by submitting this application, I am binding myself contractually to any and all terms and conditions contained in the Housing and Dining Agreement and any policies and procedures referenced therein. I understand this is a serious legal commitment.

Drexel University does not discriminate on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, physical disability or religion, and is in accordance with the provisions of Title IX of the Higher Education Act of 1972 in regard to non-discrimination on the basis of sex.

You must enter your student ID number to complete the contract.
