

Global Philadelphia Day Camp July 10-14, 2023 | $700

Department of Global Studies, Modern Languages

DREXEL UNIVERSITY
College of Arts and Sciences

Overview

See the world in Philly! In this week-long camp, students will be introduced to the many global and cultural facets that Philadelphia has to offer. From French architecture to food from China, Korea, and West Africa, to art from Japan and dance from Latin America, students will learn from experts in the Department of Global Studies and Modern Languages and experience Philadelphia's global culture first-hand through activities and excursions throughout the city and surrounding areas. Students will use their smartphones to document their activities during the week with photography and video and will share these through Cartoneras, a book style originating in Argentina, which they will create and design themselves.
