

Preparing for Work:

Tips and tools for and by individuals with disabilities

IDENTIFYING YOUR JOB SEARCH TEAM

Make a list of the people you know well in the space provided below:

Ex. Mr. Smith, (former teacher)

Of the names you listed above, circle the names you would go to for advice to find employment. Then, fill out the chart below with the information of your circled names. See example provided:

Person	Relationship	Contact
Mr. Smith	Former College Professor	(215) 123-5555

*Resource adapted from: LEAD Center, Guided Group Discovery | 2017 Edition

More videos and resources found at:

<https://drexel.edu/autisminstitute/research-projects/projects/Transition-Pathways/>

Preparing for Work:

Tips and tools for and by individuals with disabilities

Next to each of the activities below, write which member(s) of your Job Search Team you would ask for assistance in completing these tasks.

Job Search Activities

Be a job reference

Practice interviewing

Assistance filling out an application

Write a letter of recommendation

Help you find jobs to apply for

Facilitate an introduction to a professional in an area of career interest

Review/edit your resume

Help creating a LinkedIn page

Ask around for job leads on your behalf

Other: _____

More videos and resources found at:

<https://drexel.edu/autisminstitute/research-projects/projects/Transition-Pathways/>
