

Socio-Dramatic Affective Relational Intervention (SDARI)

Become a Certified SDARI Instructor!

What is SDARI?

SDARI is an empirically supported social group built on 20 years of research and practice-based evidence. The SDARI Program:

- ★ Is developed for autistic youth ages 8-17
- ★ Harnesses the power of improv games
- ★ Fosters social opportunities and friendships
- ★ Creates neuro-affirming spaces to connect with others in meaningful ways

In a fun, non-judgmental environment, youth:

- ★ Grow confidence and expand social creativity
- ★ Practice and build social-emotional skills, such as self-regulation and perspective-taking

SDARI Instructor Training Details

- ★ In-person at the AJ Drexel Autism Institute (AJDAI) in Philadelphia, PA (lunch provided)
- ★ 8-hour hands-on foundational training
- ★ Individualized follow up consultation available

Scholarships available
thanks to the
Miranda Family Fund & Weisbrot Family

Interested?

✉ Email us!

AJDAITrainings@drexel.edu