Note: Any student who is selected for the CNHP scholarship would not be eligible to receive the below scholarships due to limited funding

Diversity Scholarship: This scholarship is sponsored by the Drexel Education Abroad Office and is intended to support underrepresented students in study abroad and diversify the student participation of ICAs. ICA Diversity Scholarship awards are in the amount of $500, which is refunded from the program Final Payment. Students with any of the following diversity factors are eligible to apply:

- Racial/ethnic Minority
- First Generation College Student
- LGBTQ

If a student feels they have other diversity factors not listed, they should explain this in detail in their scholarship application. Scholarship decisions are made after the ICA application deadline.

Financial Need Scholarship: This scholarship is sponsored by the Drexel Education Abroad office and is intended to enable students with high financial need to participate in their first study abroad program. Scholarship awards range from $500 - $700, which will be deducted from the program Final Payment. Students applying for the ICA Financial Need Scholarship must complete the ICA program application as well. Scholarship decisions will be made one day prior to the ICA application deadline, at which time students must submit the Advanced Payment to complete their ICA application or may choose to withdraw their ICA application.
