

CURRICULUM VITAE
David Michael Kutzik

Personal Data:

Name: David M. Kutzik
Date of Birth: August 19, 1952
Present Address: Department of Anthropology
Drexel University
Philadelphia, PA 19104
Telephone: Office: (215) 895-2309
Home: (215) 248-0963
Email: dkutzik@aol.com

Positions:

Professor of Sociology, Drexel University, 2010 – present.
Associate Professor of Sociology, Drexel University, 1995 - 2010.
Assistant Professor of Sociology, Drexel University, 1989 – 1995.
Associate Director, Center for Applied Neurogerontology, Drexel University, 1994 - 2009.

Education:

Ph.D. Temple University - 1990 - Sociology
B.A. University of Pennsylvania - 1977 - Sociology

Research and Professional Experience:

Consulting Investigator, Transitions Project 2011-2013
Co-Principal Investigator, Transitions Project 2008 - 2010
Co-Principal Investigator, Caring Home Initiative 2005 – 2007
Co-Principal Investigator – Everyday Living Monitoring System 2002 -2007
Co-Principal Investigator, “MicroSociety Program as After School Intervention”,
Joint research with Research for Action. 1999 - 2002

Principal Investigator, evaluation of MicroSociety Program impacts in context of O.B. Porter comprehensive school reform - 2000

Principal Investigator, intervention impact study of MicroSociety Philadelphia Initiative 1997 - 1999

Co-principal Investigator, Medication Adherence Program Project Research Service Provision Contract with Health Promotion Department of the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging 1994 - 1995

Principal Investigator, Study of the Home Bound Philadelphia Elderly, in collaboration with the In-home care department of the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging - 1993

Co-Principal Investigator, Study of Usage of Assistive Housing Modifications, in collaboration with the Senior Housing Assistance and Repair Program of Philadelphia Corporation for Aging and the William Penn Foundation - 1991

Investigator, Study of Post Hospital Discharge Functional Disability Among the Elderly with the planning department of the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging under the aegis of the Pennsylvania Department of Aging - 1990

Grants and Contracts:

Transitions Project with Vilans (National Institute of Long Term Care of the Netherlands), Personalized Care through Lifestyle Monitoring, 2008 – 2012, $140,000.

Research Consultant/Co-Principal Investigator with Research for Action on mixed-method projects requiring merged survey and ethnographic data analysis and design for classroom-based research, 2001 – 2006 -$118,000

Sub-contract with Honeywell, Inc., Minneapolis, MN, to further develop and refine the ILSA monitoring system, 2001-2002 -$225,000.

Research Consultant/Principal Investigator for MicroSociety Inc., to evaluate program impacts for O.B. Porter Comprehensive School Reform process, 2000, 2005 - $77,000

Co-Director/Principal Investigator, Medication Adherence Program Project, research-service provision contract with the Health Promotion department of the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, 1994-1996 - $59,800

Principal Research Consultant, Options Research Group of the Long Term Care and Planning Divisions of the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging. Charged with design and execution of research for the structural transformation of the Philadelphia county Long Term Care system, 1992 – 1995 - $23,200

Principal Investigator, Study of Longevity of Usage of Assistive Modifications in the Home with the SHARP department of the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, partially funded by the William Penn Foundation, 1991 - $3,100

Research Consultant for the Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, study of Post Hospital Discharge Short Term Functional Disability, partially funded by AoA Grant #03AM0217, 1990 - $7,200

Professional Activities:

Vice President, Behavioral Informatics, Inc. 1999 - 2009.

Member, Medical Advisory Board of Living Independently, Inc., New York, New York, 2002 - 2007

Principal, Kutzik Associates – 1997 to present

Member, Crozer Keystone Telemedicine Advisory Committee, Crozer Chester Medical Center, Chester, PA, 1999 - 2001

Vice President, GeROTECH INC. 1993 - 1999

Principal Researcher, Options Research Group, 1992 - 1995

Member, Gerontological Society of America.

Co-Convener, Technology and Aging Group (TAG), 2006 - present.

Chair and Symposium Organizer – “Mixed Results from the Field: Remote Monitoring a Decade On”, National Harbor, MD, 2008

Chair, “Urban Aging”, paper session, National Harbor, MD, 2008

Chair, Business Meeting and Session Organizer, Dallas, 2006

Conference Paper Reviewer, 2003, 1997, 1994, 2008

Co-Chair, Pre-Conference Workshop, “Microprocessor Assisted ADL Caregiving and Case Management: the Coming Revolution, Cincinnati, 1997

Campus Representative for Drexel University for the Gerontological Society of America 1998 – present.

Member, Eastern Sociological Society 1997 – present.

Chair and Discussant, Session on the Conditions Facing the Aged in the USA, annual meeting, Philadelphia, March, 2007.

Patents

United States Patent #8,682,952 Kutzik, et. al., “System for Monitoring the Effectiveness of Care Giving.” March, 2014.

United States Patent #8,321,562 Kutzik, et. al., “Determining a Value According to a Statistical Operation in a Monitored Living Area.” November, 2012.

United States Patent #7,937,461 Kutzik, et al., “Method for Controlling a Daily Living Activity Monitoring System from a Remote Location.” May, 2011.

South Africa Patent #2004/3159 Kutzik, et al., “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” March, 2008.

United States Patent #6,108,685- Kutzik, et al., “System for Generating Periodic Reports, Generating Trend Analysis, and Intervention in Accordance with Trend Analysis from a Detection Subsystem for Monitoring Daily Living Activity--2.” United States Patent Office, Washington, DC, August 22, 2000.

Canadian Patent #2,208,594 - Kutzik, et al., “User Monitoring System”. Canadian Patent and Intellectual Property Office, Ottawa-Hull, Canada, 2000.

United States Patent #5,692,215- Kutzik, et al., “System for Generating Periodic Reports, Generating Trend Analysis, and Intervention in Accordance with Trend Analysis from a Detection Subsystem for Monitoring Daily Living Activity.” United States Patent Office, Washington, DC, November 25, 1997.

Patents Pending:

Worldwide # PCT/US08/64399, Kutzik and Glascock, “System for Maximizing the Effectiveness of Care Giving.” CPT, filed May 21, 2008.

United States CIP #11/763,102, Kutzik and Glascock, “System for Maximizing the Effectiveness of Care Giving.” United States Patent Office, Washington, DC, Filed June 15, 2007.

United States DIV #11/1710,569, Kutzik and Glascock, “Determining a Value According to a Statistical Operation in a Monitored Living Area.” United States Patent Office, Washington, DC, Filed, March 16, 2005.

United States CIP #09/710,569, Kutzik and Glascock, “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” United States Patent Office, Washington, DC, Filed November 9, 2000.

European Union #019900053, Kutzik and Glascock, “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” Filed December 10, 2003.

New Zealand Serial No. 532,948, Kutzik and Glascock, “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” Filed November 8, 2003.

Israel Serial No. 161,635, Kutzik and Glascock, “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” Filed November 8, 2003.

South Korea Serial No. 10-2004-7007062, Kutzik and Glascock, “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” Filed November 8, 2003.

Australia Serial No. 2002-228927, Kutzik and Glascock, “Monitoring a Daily Living Activity and Analyzing Data Related Thereto.” Filed November 8, 2003.
