

Curriculum Vitae

KATHRYN STEEN

Department of History
Drexel University, 9-3025
3250-60 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104-2875

(o) 215-895-6615
(fax) 215-895-6614
steen@drexel.edu

EMPLOYMENT

Associate Professor of History, Department of History, Drexel University, Philadelphia
(at Drexel University since 1996)

EDUCATION

PhD, Hagley Program, History of Technology, University of Delaware
MA, Hagley Program, History of Technology, University of Delaware
BA, History and Economics, Luther College

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

The American Synthetic Organic Chemicals Industry: War and Politics, 1910-1930. Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2014.

* Winner of the 2015 Ralph Gomory Prize (Business History Conference)

"Patents, Patriotism, and 'Skilled in the Art': USA v. The Chemical Foundation, Inc., 1923-1926," Isis 92 (March 2001): 91-122.

"Drexel Presents the Civil War as it Came to Philadelphia," music CD for the 150th anniversary of the Civil War, April 2011.

SELECTED FELLOWSHIPS

Hagley Museum & Library (Hagley Fellow, summer travel grant), National Science Foundation (three grants), Fulbright Fellowship, Chemical Heritage Foundation (2 fellowships), Smithsonian Institution, DAAD (language program).

TEACHING AWARDS

2014 Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Award for Distinguished Teaching
• the university-wide teaching award for senior faculty

2006 Allen Rothwarf Award for Teaching Excellence
• the university-wide teaching award for junior faculty