

Dornsife Center Code of Conduct

Welcome to Drexel University's Dornsife Center for Neighborhood Partnerships! We are delighted that you are participating in our programs. We ask that you read the code of conduct and sign below that you agree to abide by these expectations to assure all visitors and participants have a safe and meaningful experience.

- 1- All visitors and participants will abide by the Code of Conduct described below, as well as follow all Rules for Use in the Dornsife Center.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Behavior that does not comport with the expectations listed below, or that violates any of the following proscribed activities or the Rules for Use in the Dornsife Center will be dealt with in accordance with the appropriate University and Dornsife Center procedures listed below.

BEHAVIORS TO BE AVOIDED

- Conduct that a reasonable person would view as substantially or repeatedly interfering with the normal functioning of a class, clinical setting or other setting.
 - Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, repeatedly leaving and entering a classroom without authorization, making loud or distracting noises, persistently speaking without being recognized, repeatedly dominating online discussion boards or forums, or resorting to physical threats or personal insults.
- Conduct that interferes with, impairs, or obstructs the orderly conduct, processes and functions of the University or that may adversely and unreasonably impinge on the legitimate interest of others is prohibited.
 - Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, excessive noise, public intoxication, loud or indecent conduct, interference with the ability of others to enter, use, or exit any University facility, service, or activity, intentionally interfering with the freedom of expression or movement of others, interfering with University activity such as teaching, research, recreation, meetings, and public events, physical violence, reasonable apprehension of harm, or threat of violence against oneself or any member or guest of the University community.

Furthermore, all participants/visitors must comply with a request from a professor, instructor, facilitator, staff or other official regarding appropriate behavior and all participants/visitors must adhere to the Dornsife Center Rules for Use, which are attached hereto.

PROCEDURES FOR VIOLATING CODE OF CONDUCT

Failure to adhere to the Code of Conduct (including the Rules for Use) may result in the following disciplinary actions determined by the action that is committed by the participant/visitor, and not necessarily in the order presented below:

1. First violation will be met with a verbal warning.
2. Second violation will be met with a written warning.
3. Third violation will result in removal from the course and/or Dornsife Center.

The University reserves the right to accelerate the steps above and take more aggressive action (including banning the person who commits the actions and/or violates the Code or Rules from the premises) where, in its sole discretion, the University believes that the conduct is serious and/or the conduct warrants more serious action (such as, where the conduct threatens the health, safety and welfare of the person or others, or the conduct involves potential criminal activity, and other serious situations).

Please sign below to indicate that you have read and understand the foregoing course expectations.
