

Athletic Scholarship Housing Policy Question and Answer Document

Drexel Athletic Scholarship Housing Policy

Effective Date: September 1, 2017

Student-Athletes that are in their second year and above (including graduate school) will not be restricted to Drexel residence halls in order to utilize athletic scholarship funds. Student-athletes that are sophomores will continue to comply with other university policies related to housing. Your scholarship will be applied to your student account via Drexel Central Student and Financial Services; any credit to your financial aid in housing scholarship will be refunded to you in accordance with university policies that apply to all students at the university.

Athletic Scholarship Housing Policy Question and Answer Document

1. Question: I am a rising sophomore. Does this policy affect me?
Answer: Yes. While you must comply with Drexel University's 2-year residency program, you will not be restricted to residence halls in order to utilize your athletic scholarship.
2. Question: What is the order of fund allocation?
Answer: Athletic Scholarships (unless specifically denoted by Coach) are appropriated in the following order: Tuition, Fees, Room, Board, Books.
3. Question: Are Chestnut Square, University Crossings and The Summit considered Drexel Residence Halls?
Answer: No. Only on-campus Drexel Dormitories are considered Drexel Residence Halls.
4. Question: I am a rising sophomore or above and I am not living in a Drexel Residence Hall. What happens to my scholarship?
Answer: Your scholarship will be allocated in the following order: Tuition, Fees, Room, Board, Books. Any amount allocated towards housing will be issued to you in the form of a credit refund. If you have athletic scholarship funds remaining after housing is applied, the funds will go towards board and books, respectively/if applicable.
5. Question: I am a rising sophomore or above. What is the maximum amount that I can have allotted towards housing?
Answer: The maximum allotment/refund that can be awarded is the cost of three terms of housing: $10380 for the 2018-19 academic year.
6. Question: I am a rising sophomore or above. I will be on co-op next year. How does co-op affect my housing allotment if one was awarded to me?
Answer: The allocation order will remain the same with the maximum allocation towards housing remaining at $10380 for the 2018-19 academic year.
7. Question: I am a rising sophomore or above. If I don't live in a Drexel Residence Hall and have athletic scholarship allocated towards housing, when will I get my credit refund?
Answer: Credit refunds will be issued in accordance with the University's procedure for disbursement of other refunds (loans, etc). Typically refunds are issued during week one of each term.
8. Question: I was supposed to get a credit refund for my housing, but I didn't get the full refunded to me. Why?
Answer: Any outstanding/unpaid balance on your account must be resolved prior to any Credit refund being issued.
9. Question: I have to pay a deposit when I sign my lease. What do I do?
Answer: You are responsible for paying your deposits, etc.
10. Question: How do I pay my rent?
Answer: You pay your rent via the allowable method by your landlord, leasing agency (eg, monthly checks).
11. Question: How do I set up direct deposit to get my credit refund as quickly as possible?
Answer: <http://drexel.edu/drexelcentral/billing/refunds/direct-deposit/>

Athletic Scholarship Housing Policy Question and Answer Document