Billing and Financing for You and Your Student
By now, you should have seen and reviewed your student’s financial aid package. There are still some items left to consider about financing your student’s education.
Below are the steps you need to complete in order to ensure that your student’s financial aid package is ready for the first eBill.

1. First, you will want to understand Drexel’s financial aid terms and conditions. To view these policies, visit drexel.edu/drexelcentral/financing/undergrad-terms.

2. If awarded federal loans, you need to complete the following two steps at studentaid.gov:
   • Entrance Counseling
   • Master Promissory Note
Student loans will not be available to help cover your bill until these steps are completed. To view information about loans, visit drexel.edu/drexelcentral/financing/loans.

3. If offered federal loans or a work-study award, you must log in to your DrexelOne account (our student portal) at one.drexel.edu and accept or decline each award. More information about this process can be found at drexel.edu/drexelcentral/financing/apply-for-aid.

   Student loans will not be available to help cover your student’s bill until they have accepted the awards. Federal Work Study funding will only be available after a student has both accepted the award and started their first term of enrollment.

4. You should review and complete all outstanding financial aid requirements online via your DrexelOne account (our student portal) at one.drexel.edu.

5. Notify Drexel as soon as possible of any private scholarships you are receiving; these awards are considered financial resources and need to be reflected in your financial aid package. If the scholarship organization sends you a check directly, you should endorse and submit it in person or by mail to:

   Cashier’s Office
   Suite 106, Main Building
   Drexel University
   3141 Chestnut Street
   Philadelphia, PA 19104

6. Consider using alternative financing options for any remaining balance or costs:
   • Parent PLUS Loan
   • Tuition Payment Plan
   • Private Education Loan

   More information about these options is available at drexel.edu/drexelcentral/financing/undergrad.
Drexel bills students electronically. These eBills are accessible via DrexelOne and are not mailed in paper form to you or your student. Here are a few frequently asked questions about the billing process to help guide your way.

1. WHEN AND WHERE CAN I VIEW THE FIRST EBILL?
   - In mid-July, an initial email notice will be sent to your student’s Drexel email account about the eBill. Your student can also sign up to receive text message notices. Monthly emails will continue to be sent each time a new eBill is issued. For your student to view their eBill, they will need to:
     - Log in to their DrexelOne account at one.drexel.edu.
     - Select the Billing+Financial Aid tab.
     - Select the “eBills” link in the Billing channel.

2. HOW CAN I GAIN ACCESS TO MY STUDENT’S EBILL?
   To see your student’s billing information and to receive email notifications, have them add you as an authorized user as follows:
   - Log in to their DrexelOne account at one.drexel.edu.
   - Select the Billing+Financial Aid tab.
   - Select the “Authorized Users” link under Manage Online Billing.
   - Follow the prompts to grant you access to your student’s eBill.
To ensure that any financial aid refund issued to your student is received quickly and safely, we strongly encourage that your student sign up for direct deposit. This will deposit any refund amount directly into the bank account of your student's choice.

Drexel has many resources to help families prepare for the transition and make the administrative aspects of a college education easier.

DREXELONE – STUDENT PORTAL

During their time at Drexel, your Dragon will utilize DrexelOne (our student portal) for all their administrative needs. Your student can access DrexelOne at one.drexel.edu.

The Billing+Financial Aid tab in DrexelOne is where they can:

- View their financial aid status as well as upload required documents.
- Access their financial aid awards.
- Read their cost of attendance breakdown.
- View their billing account status and eBills.
- Set up direct deposit and authorized users.
- Make electronic payments.

DREXEL CENTRAL

Drexel Central’s goal is to maximize student success by helping students and their families navigate necessary University processes.

In particular, Drexel Central aims to provide resources for financial questions as well as provide educational opportunities and tools that enable students and families to make informed decisions.

Please contact us with questions in the following ways:

- Electronically via Ask Drexel at ask.drexel.edu
- By phone at 215.895.1600
- In person at our University City Campus location (Main Building, Suite 106)
