The University is committed to providing an environment free from discrimination, including discrimination based on sex and gender, and has a zero-tolerance policy concerning any and all forms of sexual or gender-based harassment and misconduct.
An individual who reports sexual and gender-based harassment or misconduct, either as a complainant or a third-party witness, will not be subject to disciplinary action by the University for their own personal consumption of alcohol or drugs at or near the time of the incident, provided that any such violations did not and do not place the health or safety of any other person at risk.

To make a report of sexual or gender-based harassment or misconduct to the University...

Any student, employee, applicant for employment or admission to the University, or campus guests who believes that he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of sex or gender, in violation of Title IX, may file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator.

Drexel’s Title IX Coordinator is:
Alison Dougherty, Ed.D.
Interim Title IX Coordinator
Office of Institutional Equity and Inclusive Culture
