Justification for Account:

The following message will be sent to the individual requiring a temporary account:

The Department of Environmental Health and Safety is migrating management and tracking of inspections and training to BioRAFT. BioRAFT is a web-based management platform that supports safety compliance. It is our understanding you work or learn in a University laboratory or clinical operation. As such, you will be provided a temporary account to access the BioRAFT system.

The BioRAFT system will send you an email concerning your account. You can access the system at www.drexel.bioraft.com. In order to login to the system click on “Click here for other access methods” under the “Log in with DrexelConnect”. Contact your supervisor immediately once you received the access email. Your supervisor must add you as a member,

Please feel free to contact me at safeheal@drexel.edu if you have any questions or concerns.

Martin Bell, Director of Environmental Health and Safety
