2020-2021 Faculty Evaluation – CV Checklist

In an effort to streamline the faculty evaluation process, the 2020-2021 evaluation will be completed online using Career Pathway. The online system offers the following advantages:

- Little need to copy and paste teaching, research, and service metrics from system to system; most should be included in the CV which you will upload when completing your evaluation, and department heads and their delegates will have access to the source systems, including Banner and AEFIS.
- Electronic storage in a single system, providing future access with no need to scan paper evaluations and send them to Faculty Affairs or Human Resources.

Before uploading your CV to the online system, please highlight in yellow any new achievements or works in progress so the department head can pay particular attention to new content. Also include the following items in your CV, as appropriate.

Teaching & Advising
Guest lecturing etc. in outside department/program courses
Teaching awards or commendations
Advising and student mentoring
Publications
A link to publications if available, otherwise:
Published works – peer reviewed articles/papers and books with editorial review, contributed chapters, letters, reviews, notes, and non-refereed publications Publications in progress – works accepted for publication, works submitted for publication, works in draft
Other works and presentations – invited presentations, conference papers (refereed and non-refereed with a notation as to status)
Other scholarly activities – software or tapes, videos, etc.
Grants, Fellowships, and Research Awards
Funded grant proposals
Proposals submitted
Patents
Other awards and honors
Service Activities
Memberships/fellowships
Offices held
Conferences organized
Reviewer/editor of journals or proposals
University committees and administrative appointments
College committees and administrative appointments
Department/School committees and administrative appointments
Service to your profession
External Consulting Practices
Client, dates, role
Instrumentation donations arranged

A few questions will be included in the online evaluation to clarify items that may not be included in your CV – please provide the information requested as appropriate and skip any questions that are not applicable.