FINANCIAL LITERACY SERIES

LET'S TALK TAXES!

Join us for our most anticipated workshop: Taxes! You can't avoid them so you might as well understand them. This workshop is intended to give you a basic understanding of how federal taxes are calculated, as well as how every financial decision you make impacts your taxes. You will also have a better understanding of how taxes interplay with student loan repayments. Includes information about Form 1098-T for graduate students with qualifying assistantships and fellowships.

Featuring guest speakers,
Michael Clancy and Melissa Richman

Wednesday, January 25, 2023
12 - 1 p.m. EST
Virtual via Zoom
