

THANK A TEACHER!

Great teachers make a difference at Drexel. These instructors challenge and inspire us. They support us through difficult times and help us to surpass our own expectations.

The Teaching and Learning Center invites you to publicly say thanks to a Drexel University instructor who has made the Drexel difference in your education. Complete the form below to share your thoughts and thank a teacher. We will share your note with the instructor, their department head, dean, and with your permission, post it on our website.

Say thanks today!
