

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10
11:00 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.
VIRTUAL VIA ZOOM

SCHOLARS SHARE
Conversations on Graduate Student Research

CELEBRATING BLACK EXCELLENCE

In celebration and recognition of Black History Month, the Graduate College and Graduate Student Association are proud to partner with the Center for Black Culture to offer our February Scholars Share program which honors features Black excellence, including members of our Black graduate and professional community and research topics related to Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC).

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Kelly Wallace-Baxter, MA-CMHC

Doctor of Couple and Family
Therapy (DCFT)
College of Nursing and Health
Professions

Implementing Structural Change to Increase
Inclusiveness of Queer Affirming Curriculum in Couples/Marriage and Family
Therapy Programs

Neisha Terry Young

PhD Program in Education
Leadership and Policy
School of Education

Literacy Research and Black Caribbean Youth

Tiffany M. Eaton, DRPHC, MPH

DrPH Program in Community
Health and Prevention
Dornsife School of Public Health

An Exploration of the Role of Socioeconomic and Sociocultural Influences on Weight
Management in Black Women