

Daniel Wolman

Education

Northwestern University (M.S.Ed.)

Sept. 2012—June 2014

- Illinois Professional Educator License, Grades 9-12; Highly qualified in History, Political Science

University of Michigan Law School (J.D.)

Aug. 2003—May 2006

- Moot Court semifinalist (Spring 2005)
- Wolverine Street Law Instructor, Washtenaw Juvenile Detention Center (2004-2006)

Northwestern University (B.S.)

Sept. 1998—June 2002

- Double Major in Political Science, Communication Studies; Minor in Psychology

Teaching Experience

Oak Park River Forest High School (Oak Park, IL)

Aug. 2014—June 2024

- Taught World History, Criminal & Civil Law, and Modern Middle East History
- Previous courses include Civics, Asian Studies, Sports & Resistance, and Psychology
- Founder and leader of OPRF Cell Phone Committee (2018-Present)
- Five-year member of Freshman 'Detracked' Curriculum Redesign Team (2018-Present)
- Served on Faculty Senate, Hiring Committees, and Mission & Vision Committees

Northwestern University (Evanston, IL)

March 2014—June 2014

- Teaching Assistant for Prof. Michael Sherry, American Cultural History: 1900-2014
- Received average teacher evaluation of 5.86/6

Latin School of Chicago (Chicago, IL)

Sept. 2012—July 2013

- Taught 7th and 8th grade Language Arts & Writing
- Coached 7th and 8th grade boys' basketball

Penn Charter (Philadelphia, PA)

Oct. 2011—May 2012

- Taught 8th grade English (half-year parental leave replacement)
- Coached sophomore boys' basketball, middle school tennis and football, and mock trial

Other Professional Experience

Steptoe & Johnson LLP (Chicago, IL); Associate

Oct. 2008—July 2011

- Performed all aspects of commercial litigation and supervised junior associates

Latham & Watkins LLP (Chicago, IL); Associate

Sept. 2006—Oct. 2008

- Researched and wrote legal briefs and memoranda; represented numerous Pro Bono clients

Recognitions & Personal Interests

- Featured in local newspaper for design, implementation and leadership of school-wide cell phone policy
- Majored in Radio, TV & Film at Northwestern for two years
- Interests include recreational sports, creative writing, film, Middle East history, politics, and travel