

DREXEL UNIVERSITY

Thomas R. Kline

School of Law

ATTENTION 2LS

The 19th Annual Carl “Tobey” Oxholm Summer Fellowships (2)

The Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law is pleased to announce the 19th Annual Carl “Tobey” Oxholm Summer Fellowships (2)

with the Philadelphia City Solicitor’s Office.

The Fellowship is open to all second-year students who have an interest and seek to explore a career in local government through a hands-on experience in the City Solicitor's Office during summer 2026. The winners of this $12,000 stipend will be paid in May 2026.

Two (2) students will be selected for fellowships.

All interested 2L students should submit the following application materials via Symplicity by NOON on November 3rd. Late or incomplete submissions will not be considered.

Selected students will be invited to an interview in mid-November

1. Résumé
2. A personal statement (two pages maximum) – please upload as a “cover letter”
 - (a) highlighting your past experience and/or interest in municipal government
 - (b) explaining why a summer in the Solicitor's Office “fits” who you are and what you think you might want to do after graduation
 - (c) identifying two to three (maximum) practice group units within the Solicitor's Office where you would prefer to work (ranking your preference and explaining your choices)
3. A personal reference from one of your professors at the law school, providing insight into what you would bring to the internship. These can be emailed directly to eed45@drexel.edu by 11/3/2025.

To learn more about the City Solicitor's Office and its practice group units please visit <https://www.phila.gov/departments/law-department/>

Register now!

Oxholm Colloquium

Thursday, October 30th at 5:15 p.m.

Keynote: Congresswoman Mary Gay Scanlon

2025 Oxholm Fellows Deaven Ross & Josh Ventura share their experience.

RSVP on Symplicity