

Descriptive statement (may be biographical):

1872 born in Upper New York State (Medical Women's Journal, v.51, 1944, p.32)
 1896 B.A. from Colorado College, Colorado Springs 1901 M.D. from Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania 1903-1913 medical missionary in Punjab, India where she was -professor of gynecology and obstetrics at North India School of Medicine in Ludhiana
 -Surgeon & gynecologist at the Memorial Hospital returned to United States due to her mother's illness and did public health work at Colorado Springs and founded a tuberculosis clinic (newspaper clipping, Harrisburg, Patroit 2/19/65) 1920 accepted a position in the Preschool Division of the Pennsylvania State Board of Health with Dr. Ellen Potter and later became Chief of the Division
 1936 retired
 1965 died February 7 in a nursing home in Hershey, Penna. of art~~er~~iosclerosis (JAMA v.192, #4, Apr.26, 1965, p.345)

MEMBERSHIPS

Fellow American Medical Association
 Fellow and life member of American College of Physicians Honorary member of American Pediatric Society

AWARDS

1949 Elizabeth Blackwell Centennial Award
 1955 Outstanding Alumna of Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania

Brief Statement of Contents:

	correspondence 1910	3 items
	awards, certificates,
	diplomas 1926-1955	6 items
	photos	3 items
Additional comments:	reprints 1907, 1949, 1955	3 items
	miscellanea	2 items
		17

Processed by: Margaret Jerrido Date completed 27 October 1978