

*HOSPITALS, CLINICS AND DISPENSARIES CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH THE WOMAN'S MEDICAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA DESCRIPTIVE STATEMENT

Page 1

- I. Clinic of the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania
- 1851 a clinic was founded as part of the College and was attached to the College building (Alsop p.45 and Annual Announcements, 4th,p.7)
- II. Woman's Hospital of Philadelphia
- 1861 (December 16th) a hospital was founded by Ann Preston and opened its doors on North College Avenue and 22nd Streets (Alsop p.51 & 156)
- 1862 (beginning in September) shared quarters with the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania until 1875 at which time the College moved to North College Avenue and 21st Streets (Annual Announcements, 13th, p.1)
- 1929 merged with West Philadelphia Hospital (Accession numbers 1-4)
- 1964 closed it's doors; was "absorbed" by University of Pennsylvania (Accession numbers 1-4)
- III. Broomall's Out-practice and Maternity Hospital
- 1888 out-patient department founded by Dr. Anna E. Broomall in the southern part of town [335 Washington Avenue? 1335 S. 10th Street?] (Alsop p.121; Transactions of the 56th Meeting of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania,p.18; and Maternity Hospital Annual Reports 1903-1904)
- 1903 in patient practice added. Now referred to as Maternity Hospital, listed as 335 Washington Ave. House bought during 1903,1904,or 1905---address by 1905 is 333-335 Washington Avenue. (Report of the Hospital of Woman's Medical College, 4th,p.59; Founders Day Memorial Volume,p.315 )
- 1914 maternity in-patient moved to North College Avenue and 21st Streets when the College Hospital is completed, while the out-patient remained on Washington Avenue. (Report of the Hospital of Woman's Medical College,p.9;Annual Announcements, 66th,p.10)
- 1919 (Jan.-Sept.) Out-patient service closed temporarily due to lack of physicians. (Report of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College,15th,p.26)
- IV. Hospital and Dispensaries of the Alumnae of the Woman's Medical College [Amy S. Barton Dispensary]
- 1895 Dispensary established by Woman's Medical College alumnae and located at 1212 South 3rd Street. (Annual Announcements,48th,p.17)
- 1900 moved to 1207 South 3rd Street (Annual Announcements,51st,p.16)
- 1904 Amy S. Barton Dispensary becomes a department of the College Hospital; merges administratively with College. (Report of the Hospital of Woman's Medical College,1st,p.7)

* This list does not specifically include other hospitals and/or laboratories which offered clinic opportunities to Woman's Medical College students

DESCRIPTIVE STATEMENT

Page 2

- 1914 Amy S. Barton Dispensary moves to 333-335 Washington Avenue. (Annual Announcements, 66th, p.10)
- 1918 (c. Oct. 1918-c. Sept. 1919) Barton Dispensary out-patient closed due to lack of physicians (influenza epidemic raging now). Patients transported to Emergency Hospital. (Report of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College, 15th, p.26)
- 1927 Amy S. Barton Dispensary moves to 4253 Ridge Avenue (Report of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College, 23rd, p.10)
- 1930 Amy S. Barton Dispensary moves to 1309 N. 22nd Street (Annual Announcements, 82nd, p.14)
- 1931 Amy S. Barton Dispensary moves to 21st Streets and North College Avenue (Annual Announcements, 83rd, p.14)
- 1946 Barton Dispensary and other clinics transferred to City Health Center at 20th & Berks Streets (Annual Announcements, 98th, p.24)

V. Emergency Hospital

- 1918 established because of influenza epidemic cases. Established in cooperation with Southward Neighborhood House, College Settlement, and Sun Shipbuilding, it functioned under the care of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania. Out-patients from Barton Dispensary were transported here. (Report of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College, 15th, p.26)

VI. Venereal Ward and Dispensary

- 1918 was opened and run in cooperation with the Woman's Hospital of Philadelphia and the West Philadelphia Hospital for Women. "Located in one of [the] reconstructed houses." [location unknown]. (Report of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College, 14th, p.13 and 15th, p.19)
- 1921 provisions were made for these patients in other hospitals; this ward was then closed. (Annual Announcements, 73rd, p.12)

VII. Hospital of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania

- 1904 College established a hospital known as the Pavilion Hospital. Located at North College Avenue and 21st Street (Alsop p.161; Annual Announcements, 55th, p.16)
- 1907 permanent building construction begins at 2121 North College Avenue. Completed in 1913. (Report of the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College, 10th, front cover)
- 1930 College and Hospital moves to 3300 Henry Avenue (Annual Announcements, 82nd, p.14)

I. Correspondence
1927, 1937, 1947

II. Manuscript
"Historical Background of the Present Hospital of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania" compiled August 1945 (Note: 1 copy is revised to Oct. 1946)

III. Minutes
Hospital staff 1917-1929
Hospital staff 1929-1932

IV. Miscellaneous

V. Publications

VI. A. Clinic Case Books

- daybook of treatment and clinic care with entries from:
1854-1855
Dr. Kersey G. Thomas, faculty
Professor of Surgery WMC

1855
Dr. Edwin Fussel, faculty,
Professor of Anatomy WMC

1856-1858
Dr. Elwood Harvey, faculty
Professor of Chemistry &
Toxicology

- Maternity Hospital (Broomall out patient department)
1888-1890
Book I missing

1890-1892
Book II

1892-1894
Book III

1894 Oct. (Oversize)

1894-1895
Book IV

1895-1896
Book V

1896-1897
Book VI

Female Medical College students apparently rotated through (visited) the clinics as part of their training

Record of confinement cases at 1335 S. 10th Street
presumably this was the Broomall out-patient obstetrical department of the Woman's Medical College

Obstetric clinics (Maternity Hospital case notes belonging to Martha G.K. Schetky, student of Woman's Medical College this book also includes lecture
notes Nov. 1894-Mar. 1895

1897-1899

Book VII

1899-1900

Book VIII

1903

1910-1926(oversize)

- Hospital and Dispensary of the Alumnae of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania (Amy S. Barton Dispensary)

1895-1898

children's clinic vol.I
Monday & Thursday
Dr. Weinbraub, faculty of
Woman's Medical College

1895-1897

Mondays & Thursdays
Book I
L.N. Tappan, student of
Woman's Medical College

1895-1896(some 1900)

Tuesday & Friday clinics
Book I
M.E. Allen, student of
Woman's Medical College

1895-1896

Book I
Dr. Griscom, faculty
Woman's Medical College

1896-1897

Wednesday & Saturday
Rachel R. Williams, student
Woman's Medical College

1896-1897

Out-practice

B. Lecture Notes

1894(oversize)
See also under VI.
Maternity Hospital

Delivery Operations
Maternity Admissions Case Book.
Cases can also be found in the Maternity Delivery Room Case Book

Records of cases in clinics attended by students of the
Woman's Medical College

Lecture notes belonging to Martha G.K. Schetky, student of Woman's Medical College
Nov. 1894-Mar. 1895 and it also includes obstetric clinics (Maternity Hospital) case notes

VI. Annual reports