Object: binder; "MCP Program Development Plans, 1989"

Date: 1989

Notes: The binder contains "an overview of MCP's on-going program planning process. This summary sets forth the conceptual basis for disciplinary and interdisciplinary program development, stating the need for the growth of strong clinical and research programs to support the primary mission. The document emphasizes the broad involvement of the Faculty and the leadership role of the Dean in the planning process."
