

MCP Hahnemann University
Archives and Special Collections on Women in Medicine
Transfer Record

Accession #: 2001.5
Date: March 26, 2001

Source: Department of Surgery Research

Object: materials related to Bernard Sigel, M.D. (see attached inventory), [1971-94]

Date: [1971-94]

Notes: Dr. Sigel was president, dean and chair of surgery at MCP. Before his death in December 2000, his work focused on research in the use of ultrasound technology in surgery.

materials at Iron Mountain

Bernard Sigel, M.D. Collection

2001.5

Box 1:

curriculum vitae, c. 1994

mock-ups for slides on ultrasound technology, n.d.

reprints in binders, 1971-74, 1975-80, 1981-82, 1982, 1984-85

Box 2:

mock-ups for slides on ultrasound technology, n.d.

slides on ultrasound technology, "pancreas, including color doppler", n.d.

slides: "Surgical Emergencies of the Abdomen", n.d.

slides: "biliary", n.d.

slides: "general", n.d.

slides: "Ultrasonic Imaging in the Diagnosis of Acute Abdominal Surgical Diseases", n.d.

video tape and accompanying booklet: "Video Journal of Color Flow Imaging", 1992

paper: "Surgical Emergencies of the Abdomen", 1990

slides and hand-outs for lectures on ultrasound technology, n.d.

slides: "Management of Small Bowel Obstruction", 1990

slides: "liver", n.d.

slides: "stomach and esophagus", n.d.

slides: "neurosurgery", n.d.

Operative Ultrasonography (Sigel, 1982)

Ultrasound in the Diagnosis of Cardiovascular-Pulmonary Disease (Sigel - contributor, 1974)

Introduction to Vascular Ultrasonography (Sigel - contributor, 1986)

reprints in binder, 1984