

2025 Anti-Racist Civic Engagement Mini-Grant Application

Presented by the Lindy Center for Civic Engagement

This form will take roughly 10 minutes to complete and asks about the applicant as well as the project for which you are seeking funding. Please make sure you have reviewed the grant description, parameters, and FAQs on the Lindy Center's website before submitting to ensure you will qualify.

1

Applicant First Name

2

Applicant Last Name

3

Applicant Email

4

Applicant Affiliation (if applying as part of a student group, academic unit, administrative department, community organization, or other entity)

5

Applicant is a:

- Drexel student (applying as individual)
- Drexel student (applying on behalf of student organization)
- Drexel professional staff
- Drexel faculty
- Community member

Please provide information about your project.

6

Describe your project or initiative in a couple of sentences, including the issue your project is seeking to address. Who is involved in your collective problem-solving process? What impact do you hope the project will have?

7

Is your project or initiative new or has it been ongoing? If new, please share what led to the project being started. If ongoing, please share how long and a brief summary of what has already been done.

8

How does your project utilize a lens of anti-racism and racial justice?

9

We are interested in projects and initiatives that incorporate learning, community-building, and problem-solving. How does your project or initiative incorporate these elements?

10

Who is involved in this project and how are you ensuring that your approach to the issue identified incorporates voices from many different stakeholders (stakeholders such as students, faculty, staff, community, etc.). How are you using anti-racism as a framework to guide your work together?

11

How will funding of up to $1,000 help you advance this project? Please provide a rough idea of what you will spend funds on.

What is the general timeline of when you will need funds for your project? For example, "late spring term".

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Microsoft. The data you submit will be sent to the form owner.