

ELAM's 30th Anniversary Awards

Transformational Leadership Award

This document includes information fields required to submit a nomination via electronic entry for the Transformational Leadership Award.

Questions should be directed to Janine Barber at jkb48@drexel.edu

Nominations close on February 5, 2025

Required fields on nomination form:

Nominator

Name, title, email address and organization/institution name

Name and email address of Assistant (if applicable)

Nominator relationship to ELAM/ELH

Nominee

Name, title, email address and organization/institution name

Nominee relationship to ELAM/ELH

Required text fields: Please see below for the questions and maximum word count.

Transformational Leadership Award

- Describe how the nominee demonstrates excellence in visionary leadership contributing significantly to cultural transformation. (300-word limit.)
- Describe ways the nominee encourages, inspires, mentors and sponsors a diverse, inclusive and equitable group of clinicians, scientists, educators and staff, (300-word limit.)
- Describe the nominee's contributions in motivating others to innovate and create change that will grow and shape the future success of women and under-represented populations in medicine and the health sciences, leading to a more just and equitable culture. (300-word limit.)

Other required materials to be uploaded into the nomination portal*:

Curriculum vitae:

You must upload the nominee's current CV.

Letters of Support:

You must upload at least one (but no more than three) letter(s) of support.

IMPORTANT information for uploading attachments (letters and CV) into the online nomination portal:

Accepted file size: No more than 5 MB per file

Accepted file format: Must be .doc, .docx, .rtf, or .pdf.

NOTE: Please rename your files and omit any special characters before uploading them.