RESEARCH ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Compiling this document required many hands and many eyes. The organizations involved in creating this guide are grateful for the feedback provided by Mayors and their senior staff who took time out of their busy schedules to ensure this document is maximally beneficial for local leaders across America. Their feedback was invaluable. We are also grateful for the research support provided by the team at Oxford Urbanists who helped us analyze key provisions of the American Rescue Plan.
INTRODUCTION

THE AMERICAN RESCUE PLAN FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS AT-A-GLANCE
On March 11, 2021, President Biden signed the $1.9 trillion American Rescue Plan (ARP) into law. The legislation represents a historic intervention and a fitting response to the devastating impact of the global COVID-19 crisis. The ARP builds upon certain provisions in the CARES Act and the December Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CCRRSA), and often does so on a larger scale. The law also includes new initiatives that will reach some of the most vulnerable communities and businesses excluded from prior funding packages. In doing so, the law strives not only to limit the damage from 2020, but to equip cities and towns with tools necessary to start building a stronger and more equitable future over the next decade. In 2009, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act set the tone for the recovery from the Great Recession. Today, cities must use Rescue Plan funds to shape their communities for years to come.

With funds beginning to flow down to cities and metros in April 2021, this is a practical and urgent task. America must shift from policy design to delivery. Cities and metros are on the front lines of this effort. They must get organized to maximize and deploy this unprecedented level of federal investment. Dedicated city, regional, county, and state multi-sector networks will be critical for the inclusive and effective distribution of this federal relief and recovery funding. If organized, local leaders can direct resources to drive a local recovery that creates economies that are resilient, racially inclusive, and which seed innovations to drive the next generation of American prosperity.

There is a lot in the bill to effectively organize for an inclusive recovery. The question for cities, metros, and counties now is a big one: How can communities deploy ARP funds in the most efficient and equitable manner?

In what follows, we provide a guide to federal funding in the ARP. We place a special emphasis on formula funds received by local anchors, competitive grants, and funds distributed to public authorities that city leadership can leverage to boost their recovery. We clarify which entities are responsible for applying for grant funds, when funding expires, and what role city and county leadership can play even when they will not be the primary applicant for funds.

We envision this guide as a starting point and look forward to working with cities as they develop action plans, deploy ARP funds, and strive to achieve equitable outcomes for individuals, small businesses, and communities hit hardest by the pandemic.

The tables below offer a high-level summary of funding in the American Rescue Plan. We created these tables to make it simple for city and metro leaders to assess the funding in the ARP and determine the best ways to utilize funds based on local priorities. As a result, these tables exclude direct individual relief provisions, funds to tribal governments, and agency appropriations that are not sub-allocated. Line items less than $100 million are also excluded. The rest of this document provides additional detail on information included in these tables.

GOVERNMENT FISCAL RELIEF

CITY AND COUNTY FISCAL RELIEF

The Rescue Plan provides $130.2 billion for city and county fiscal relief ($65.1 billion each for cities and counties). The first tranche will be delivered no later than early May 2021, and the second will be delivered in the second half of 2022. Funds can be used to: (1) respond to the COVID-19 public health emergency and its negative economic impacts, including assistance to households, small businesses, and non-profits, or aid to impacted industries such as tourism, travel, and hospitality; (2) assist essential workers by providing premium pay to those eligible or by providing grants to employers of eligible essential workers; (3) provide government services in a way that covers the revenue gaps created by the COVID-19 emergency; or; (4) make necessary investments into water, sewer, or broadband infrastructure. Cities cannot deposit funds into any pension funds. Cities may also receive supplemental funds from state fiscal relief funds dedicated to specific state programming. Further guidance from the Treasury is forthcoming. Funds must be used by December 31, 2024.

CHILDCARE STABILIZATION FUNDS

The Rescue Plan provides a new set of funds for the stabilization of licensed, regulated, and registered childcare providers. Funds will initially flow to state lead agencies using CCDBG formulas, which will then direct funds to individual providers. Childcare providers can use the funds to cover rent, personal costs, PPE, equipment and supplies, and goods and services to continue or re-start the provision of childcare services. Providers can also request reimbursements for similar costs accumulated during the COVID-19 emergency prior to passage of the ARP. States are explicitly required to use these funds in a way that is additive to pre-existing childcare expenditures. Further guidance is forthcoming.

Note: This program is complimentary to the $14 billion of CCDBG funds in the Rescue Plan intended to subsidize the cost of childcare for individual families and the expanded Child Tax Credit awards, which families can use to cover the cost of childcare.

ALLOCATION PROCESS: FUNDS WILL FLOW TO STATES THROUGH THE CHILDCARE AND DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT. STATE LEAD AGENCIES WILL DISTRIBUTE AT LEAST 90% OF GRANTS RECEIVED TO QUALIFIED CHILDCARE PROVIDERS, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THEY’VE PREVIOUSLY RECEIVED CCDBG FUNDS. AT LEAST 50% OF FUNDS MUST BE SUB-ALLOCATED BY STATES WITHIN 9 MONTHS OF ARP ENACTMENT. STATE LEAD AGENCIES WILL SET UP AN APPLICATION PROCESS AND APPLICATIONS MUST BE POSTED ONLINE. INDIVIDUAL CHILDCARE PROVIDERS MUST APPLY FOR FUNDS.

This provision is estimated to subsidize the cost of childcare for 875,000 children over the next year. Funds must be accessed by states by September 30, 2021. Read more here.

The American Rescue Plan provides $10 billion to state and tribal governments to fund small business credit expansion initiatives. This program will build off of the inaugural model developed in 2011 during the Obama-Biden Administration in which nearly $1.5 billion in capital supported more than $8 billion in new lending and investing activity across 142 different programs in its first five years. The new iteration will expand in scale and will include: $1.5 billion for states to support businesses owned by socially and economically disadvantaged entrepreneurs; $1 billion for an incentive program to boost funding tranches for states that show robust support for these businesses; and $500 million to support very small businesses with fewer than ten employees. This law will inject capital into state small business support and capital access programs, provide collateral support, facilitate loan participation, and enable credit guarantee programs. The Rescue Plan provides direct financial relief to individuals. Individuals with annual earnings up to $75,000, joint filers earning $150,000, and heads of households earning $112,500 will receive an additional $1,400 economic impact payment per individual. These payments phase out completely for individuals earning $80,000, joint filers earning $160,000, and heads of households earning $120,000.

$1,400 INDIVIDUAL STIMULUS PAYMENTS

CHILD TAX CREDIT AND EITC EXPANSION

The Rescue Plan increases the Child Tax Credit maximum amount to $3,000 per child and $3,600 for children under age six. It also extends the credit to 17-year-olds. The increase in the maximum amount phases out at $150,000 in income for married couples, $112,500 for heads of households, and $75,000 for other parents. The ARP also makes the Child Tax Credit fully refundable, meaning the entire credit could be provided as a refund if it exceeds an individual’s income tax liability, instead of partially refundable under current law. Credit amounts will be made through advance payments during 2021 from July to December. It also raises the EITC for adults without children from $543 to $1,502 and lowers the age eligibility for the childless EITC from 25 to 19. It also eliminates the upper age limit, which currently bars the credit for childless people who are 65 and older. Read more here.
